Hackberry Rambler Johnnie Faulk dies

John Faulk

John A. "Johnnie" Faulk, 79, of Grand Lake, died Sunday, Oct. 17, 2004 in a Lake Charles hospital.

He was born March 24, 1925 in Creole and lived most of his life in Grand Lake with his wife Eddie Mae Faulk. Mr. Faulk was honorably discharged from the U. S. Navy in 1944, and was a member of the Disabled American Veterans and VFW Post #9933. He retired from the maintenance department of W. O. Moss Regional Hospital. He was a member of St. Mary of the Lake Catholic Church and a Fourth Degree Knight of Council #11407, Msgr. Cramer's 0320 Assembly of the Knights of Columbus.

Since the early 1970's, he traveled across the U. S. and to Europe as the bass player with the Hackberry Ramblers. In 1997, the Ramblers were nominated for a Grammy Award and attended the ceremony in New York city. Memorable performances of the Ramblers include playing at the Kennedy Library in Washington D. C., a Super Bowl XXX party in Phoenix, Ariz., and playing for three U. S. Presidents at the Philadelphia Volunteers of American Summit.

His dreams as a performer were fulfilled on a trip to Nashville when he played at the Ryman Auditorium, the dedication ceremony at the Country Music Hall of Fame, and performing with the Nashville Legends at the Grand Ole Opry.

He is survived by his wife of fifty-nine years, Eddie Mae Faulk of Grand Lake; one son, Capt'n Sammie (Pat) Faulk of Grand Lake; three daughters, Becky (Dennis) Nunez of Grand Lake, Kay Maxwell of Grapevine, Tex., and Edie (Byron) Derouen of Lake Charles. He also had ten grandchildren. He is also survived by two brothers, Morgan "Black" (Melba) Faulk and Gibson "Punch" Faulk, all of Grand Lake.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 21 from the Johnson Funeral Home Chapel. Rev. Wayne LeBleu will officiate. Burial will be in Grand Lake Community Cemetery. Memorial donations may be made to the Cameron Parish Library, 498 Marshall St. Cameron, LA 70631. Phone 775-5421.

Civil War veteran remembered

A Hackberry Civil War veteran who died 77 years ago was remembered and honored at a marker dedication and memorial service held on Oct. 9 in Hackberry.

Born on Oct. 13, 1844, Valery Doiron was just 17 years old when the Civil War started. He served in Company A, Ragsdale's Battalion of the Texas Cavalry.

He died at the age of 83 on Oct. 27, 1927 and was buried in Doiron Cemetery, which is now accessible only by boat.

At the ceremony, members of the Calcasieu Chapter 1529, United Daughters of the Confederacy dedicated a new marker for Doiron's grave.

The marker was decorated with cotton bolls, the official flower of the Daughters of the Confederacy and was flanked by the General Lee Headquarters Flag and the Battle Flag.

Chapter members taking part in the ceremony were Delma Briggs, Brenda Reed, Charline Martin, Sam Breaux, Sr. (Doiron's descendant) Jan Craven and Lisa Reed.

Doiron Cemetery is a private family cemetery located on the east side of the Calcasieu Ship Channel, across from Davis' Seafood in Hackberry.

Lisa M. Reed, who transcribed the cemetery in 2002, listed 13 graves all with the name of Doiron with the exception of a Breaux and a Tinney grave. The oldest grave was 1902. The last burial in the cemetery was in 1952.

Anyone wishing to see the complete names of persons buried in the Doiron cemetery can go to this e-mail site: interment.net/data/us/la/cameron/dorion.htm

LNG plant site gets Jurors' attention

By CYNDI SELLERS

Questions about the Port of Lake Charles' ownership of the property in Cameron Parish where an LNG plant is scheduled to be built were again discussed by the Police Jury at a special meeting Friday, Oct. 15. At issue was how best to set up a discussion with the Lake Charles Port Board about the situation.

The West Cameron Port Board had met the previous evening to consider the problem and had decided to send a delegation of four members to meet with their Lake Charles counterparts. On checking with District Attorney Cecil Sanner, the Board was told that even if only a committee met, not a quorum of the Board, it would still have to be an open meeting according to the Attorney General's office.

The Police Jury was set to appoint a representative to attend the session, with the understanding there would be one person from each agency present, when Juror Sonny McGee offered a motion that the Jury instead support the W. Cameron Port Board in their endeavors, including financially if litigation is called for, providing that the the Board would not reach any decision without bringing it to the Jury.

A spirited debate followed, led by Jury President Steve Trahan, as to how these discussions would affect the construction of the Sempra LNG plant, to be located in Hackberry. Members of the West Cameron Port Board assured the Jury that they were not in any way opposed to the Sempra project, in fact very much in support, but they felt it was important to stand up to the Lake Charles authority in this matter.

Monkey Isl. ferry renamed for Dr. M. L. King, Jr.

By CYNDI SELLERS

Local and state dignitaries applauded as the sign officially renaming the Monkey Island Ferry after Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was unveiled Saturday in Cameron.

On hand were La. State Senator Gerald Theunissen, Cameron Parish District Attorney Cecil Sanner, State NAACP President Dr. Ernest Johnson, guest speaker State Representative Roy Quezaire, and Lake Charles NAACP officers Rosie Glapion, Alfred Doucette, and Florce Floyd.

The ceremony preceding the unveiling was held at the Cameron Recreation Center and hosted by the Cameron NAACP chapter, represented by President Louise Cole, Charles Cole, and Treasurer Mary Cockrell. Rev. Dennis Ray Hubbard, of the First 6th St. Baptist Church of Port Arthur, Tex, gave the invocation and benediction. Rev. Lannis Joseph, pastor of the Ebenezer Baptist Church of Cameron also spoke.

Sen. Theunissen acknowledged the 12 years of effort that Mrs. Cole had put into having Dr. King memorialized in Cameron Parish. He said her presentations before the House and Senate Transportation Committees were key to its final success.

In introducing the guest speaker, Dr. Johnson noted that a ferry was an appropriate memorial, since a ferry connects parts of the parish as Dr. King strove to connect people.

In his keynote address, Rep. Quezaire, Dist. 58, who chairs the House Transportation Committee, agreed with organizers of the event that Dr. King's struggle still continues. He noted that even though vast progress has been made, "the state is still dealing with the problem of race and race relations; education is still a problem; there are still problems dealing with the environment; problems politically between the haves and the have nots, and issues in the workplace of fairness and equity."

Prepare for winter heating bills

• Reducing air leaks could cut as much as 10 percent from an average household's monthly energy bill. For example, consumers can seal leaks around doors, windows and other openings with caulk or weather stripping. Check to see if the attic and basement have the recommended levels of insulation.

• Change or clean furnace filters once a month during the heating season. Furnaces consume less energy if they "breathe" more easily.

• Check the heating system and replace old, outdated appliances with high-efficiency natural gas models.

Gravity Drainage District #5 culverts

Culverts vandalized in Grand Chenier area

Gravity Drainage District 5 in Grand Chenier has experienced two cases of vandalism during the recent month. Two different drainage control structures have been damaged by people prying or forcing the gates on these culverts open, allowing water to flow through continuously.

The structures damaged were located in protection levees along the area referred to as "the family pasture" in Grand Chenier. The cost to repair the damage to these culverts could exceed $10,000.

Damage to these culverts causes water management problems in the areas protected by these levees, which causes property management problems in the areas protected by these levees, which causes property damage to landowners and high water levels for homeowners during heavy rain events.

The drainage board request any assistance the public can offer for information concerning anyone involved in these acts of vandalism. The drainage board has contacted the Cameron Parish Sheriff's Office and will aggressively seek prosecution of those people involved as well as restitution for the repair cost.

Retirement Home Living Notes

I woke up this morning and was freezing to death. I am very cold natured anyway and can't blame it ON old age. I went out to retrieve my morning paper and met all the joggers who take their morning jogs around the village. I'm sorry, but I do not have the stamina to do so. So I will crawl back in bed and enjoy my morning coffee while I digest the news. That is one of the perks of old age.

I have joined a water aerobics class at the Health-South building with my next door neighbor, and have found out how out of shape I am. When I get home from my workout I am exhausted.

We plan to exercise in earnest in our own pool here at the Village next summer. Of course our pool is not heated like this one.

Have you had your flu shots yet? I had mine the first day at the local health hospital. There were already hundreds of people there ahead of me, but the personnel was very organized and we had to wait only a short while. We hear that the old and very young people are getting the first chance to get them.

I heard Dr. Anthony Fauci, who is head of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious disease, over the television this morning explaining what has happened to all of the flu shots which have been contaminated and the reason for all the shortages.

Fall is definitely in the air, and the much needed rain was really appreciated and has saved us from watering every day,

The birds are really congregating out back by the magnolia tree. They seem to like to eat the red seeds that are left in the middle of the blooms. They also love the pears dropped by my patio. We also have little squirrels which Beau loves to chase, and who tease him.

I came across a cicada pin I had purchased on one of my trips and decided that this was the year to wear it. Cicadas have come out of hibernation after 17 years underground

Registered voter numbers are up in Cameron Parish

CAPITAL NEWS

The state has more registered voters than ever in its history, and an increase in Cameron Parish voters contributed to that growth since the last presidential election.

Registration numbers from the secretary of state's office list 7,487 voters in the parish as of Oct. 8, compared to 7,124 on the books as of Sept. 30, 2000. Statewide, more than 2.88 million voters registered in time to vote in the Nov. 2 presidential election, up from 2.77 million four years ago.

About 66.1 percent of the voters in the parish, 4,948 of those registered, are Democrats. That's a higher percentage than the 55.5 percent Democratic registration across the state. On Sept. 30, 2000, the parish had 5,143 Democrats on its books.

The 1,016 voters registered as Republicans constitute 13.5 percent of those on the parish rolls. By comparison, 23.9 percent of the voters statewide are members of the Republican Party. Four years earlier, 778 Republicans were registered in the parish.

The 1,523 voters who chose neither of the major parties when they registered make up 20.3 percent of the parish voters. In the state overall, 20.5 percent registered as "other parties" voters. Those registrants numbered 1,203 in the parish in the 2000 report.

While the state's population has grown during the four years since the last presidential election, not all of the increase can be attributed to that growth. Registration figures from Secretary of State Fox McKeithen's office indicate an increase in voter registration of about 118,500 over registration numbers for the 2000 election, but the voting age population has grown by a much smaller percentage.

The Democratic Party is still the largest in the state, registering 1.6 million of the 2.8 million on the rolls as of Oct. 8. That number is down almost 62,000, however, since Sept. 30, 2000, marking about a 4 percent decrease.

Republican Party registration has benefited from three years of effort by the state party to add voters to its rolls. Executive Director Jon Bargas said his group has been to fairs, festivals and high schools, especially in rural areas, to register voters. As a result, the party has grown to 691,276 votes in the state, up nearly 12 percent from 608,725 voters at the end of September four years ago.

Registration has grown even more among voters who select neither of the two major parties The 594,711 "other parties" registrants as of Oct. 8 is almost 98,000 more than were on the books Sept. 30, 2000 That's about a 16.4 percent boost in their numbers.

Several groups conducted voter registration drives leading up to the Oct. 4 deadline for voting in the presidential election. The University of Louisiana System estimates more than 4,400 students have been added to the voter rolls as a result of drives on its eight university campuses.

Absentee voting for the Nov. 2 election begins Oct. 21.

Board member Wendell Wilkerson expressed concern that a precedent not be set allowing an out of parish governmental agency to do business in Cameron Parish.

"Our forefathers sold us out on the dredging of the channel," he said. "We need to set a precedent for ourselves and our children." McGee said he, too, wanted the LNG project for Cameron Parish, but "not if we have to sell our soul to get it." He said "If we don't stop the Port (of Lake Charles) now, they'll own Cameron Parish."

Port Board members described the way the Lake Charles Port acquired the property in the first place as a kind of "shell game," where the land was purchased legally, through two different realtors, as a spoil dumping ground, but after it was built up they sought to lease the property for a money making endeavor.

Especially objectionable to the Cameron Port are the fees for wharfage or vessel fees the Lake Charles Port Board plans to charge for ships which will never enter Calcasieu Parish waters.

They said they asked for an Attorney General's opinion on the matter back in 1999, but it never materialized. They stressed that their only problem was with the Port of Lake Charles and they would try to speed up the discussion process so Sempra would not be held up.

As to the open meeting law, it was noted that the Lake Charles Port Board might not want to meet publically, but all they could do was ask. Howard Romero, Jimmy Brown, Wendell Wilkerson, and Dwight Savoie have been appointed by the W. Cameron Port Board to open the discussion with the Lake Charles board.

On the basis of all these assurances, the Police Jury voted unanimously in favor of McGee's motion.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

While watching the presidential and congressional debates, I'm sure we've all become aware that the high cost of prescription drugs has become a very hot political topic. More to the point, the controversy seems to center on just how to best lower those costs. I write today to encourage Louisiana seniors to not let the political rhetoric get in the way of taking advantage of Medicare's new Prescription Drug Discount Card Program.

As President of the Louisiana Geriatrics Society, I see, first-hand, the positive effects of prescription drugs on our elderly. Within the past decade, advancements in prescription drugs have allowed medical science to cure or control many illnesses that previously required expensive surgeries and extended hospital stays.

I know, unfortunately, that drug costs are high for many seniors and that those costs often keep patients from taking medications as they should. Many times this results in more expensive treatments later. Until recently, Medicare was charged with covering the costs of these expensive procedures while it was prohibited from covering the costs of the very drugs that might have prevented the illness in the first place.

In June, America's seniors were offered a prescription drug discount card for the first time in the 40-year history of Medicare. The Kaiser Family Foundation estimates that the card will save the average user from 17 to 24 percent on drug costs. Other studies say that means savings of up to $1247 for the average senior.

There are more than 600,000 Louisiana seniors eligible for Medicare, 160,000 with no drug coverage at all. I encourage all seniors to check into the benefits of the Prescription Drug Discount Card Program by calling 1-800-MEDICARE (633-4-2273) or visit www.MEDICARE.gov for more information. For low income seniors there is up to $600 in annual assistance to go along with the discounts. This discount is still available for the remainder of this year and will again be available next year.

Politics aside, this program can and is saving Louisiana seniors hundreds, perhaps thousands, of dollars. thank you for sharing this valuable information.

Dr. Charles A. Cefalu,
President, Louisiana
Geriatrics Society
New Orleans, La.

Oyster fishermen discuss effects of law revisions

By CYNDI SELLERS

About 50 people attended a meeting at the Police Jury Annex last Wednesday evening, Oct. 13, hosted by the Oyster Task Force. The purpose of the meeting was to acquaint oyster fishermen with the effects of the recent revision of the law regarding oystering in Calcasieu Lake, and to allow oyster buyers to see what resources the area has to offer.

Kevin Savoie, Extension Agent, reported that there is a "healthy resource out there, just sitting." Mike Harbison of the Louisiana Department of Wildlife and Fisheries presented data showing that Calcasieu Lake has abundant oyster populations, yet the harvest over the last 20 years has fallen from over 100,000 sacks per year to around 25,000 for the past few years.

LDWF's assessment shows that the lake now has the second highest total oyster population since the 1970's and the fourth highest amount of marketable oysters. Next year many more will reach marketable size. It was noted that the number of boats doing the harvesting is down as are license sales.

Some fishermen said there has been little market recently. Harbison pointed out that a number of New Orleans area oyster buyers were in attendance, and with closures in that area due to the hurricanes, there could well be renewed interest in Calcasieu Lake oysters.

This combined with the new law which allows fishermen to use hand dredges in addition to tongs and take 15 (1 and 1/2 bushel) sacks per day per licensed vessel should stimulate the local oyster business. Fishermen were encouraged to consider the market need for oysters on the half shell when culling their catch.

The regulations on the dredges specify no mechanical assistance and rakes less than 36" wide. Other aspects of the new law are that it will now be possible to close only one side of the lake if warranted, instead of the whole lake, and that recreational oyster fishermen will now be allowed to take two sacks per person instead of two sacks per boat as before. All these changes were promoted in the last legislative session as measures to give a boost to the oyster industry in SW LA.

A lengthy discussion of which areas of the lake are open and which are closed, and why, was handled by Bruce Champion of the Department of Health and Hospitals. He explained that extensive studies of the quality of oysters in the lake several years ago had caused the north end of the lake to be closed to oyster fishing. He said it will stay closed for some time, until the area is proved safe, which he said will be a very expensive process requiring several years of extensive tests. The only agency that really has the funds to do such a study is the Department of Environmental Quality, he explained, although the Food and Drug Administration or the Environmental Protection Agency could be approached about doing a feasibility study. DHH has limited funds which are primarily used to study bacterial contamination and water quality throughout the year.

The quality of Calcasieu Lake oysters is continually monitored to assure consumers of a safe product, Champion said. Samples of meat are tested regularly by the department for heavy metals and pesticides, and the water is tested for fecal coliform and other bacteria which can potentially cause harm when eaten raw.

Studies in the 1990's correlated the river levels upstream with the bacteria counts on the Calcasieu Lake and West Cove harvest areas. As a result, when the river stage at Kinder reaches 13.5 ft. the lower Calcasieu management area is closed, and when it reaches seven ft. the West Cove area is closed. The number to call for information on closures is 1-800-256-2775.

Mosquito population is contributed to weather

By JULIAN ROBICHAUX,
Assistant Director
Mosquito Control District

Warm humid weather combined with rain and high tides the last few weeks has caused mosquito populations to flourish. Most areas of Cameron Parish are experiencing high numbers of daytime and night-time mosquitoes.

Weather conditions are playing a big part in how effective the spray is and even if we can spray at all. We cannot spray in rain, winds over 10 mph, fog or temperatures below 60 F.

We will continue to check the parish to keep track of mosquito populations and spray as much as the weather allows until we get control of them.

At present, every area of the parish is scheduled to be sprayed, but it will take several days to catch up once the weather permits.

To help reduce mosquitoes harboring in barns, garages and other sheltered areas where our spray cannot reach, people can spray with permethrin which is an insecticide and a repellent. It is available at feed and seed stores and will help keep mosquitoes away for up to two weeks. It is very safe and available to the general public and even has label directions for spraying on livestock and pets to keep mosquitoes and flies off of them.

Engineer Lonnie Harper gave a report on the construction of Project #2004-03. M&C Oilfield Services is getting near completion on the project. Lonnie reported that what he has checked so far seems to be in order. He will arrange a meeting to inspect the entire project, and will prepare a punch list of things for them to correct. It was noted that at Earl Guthrie's property some trees have fallen over onto the fence, and some fences will need to be re-erected. A 48" culvert was smashed and removed, and this must be replaced. Also, gates were removed from property and must be returned. There was also some concern expressed about the trees that are left. Virgie Hebert complained that a culvert was not replaced. It was agreed that Lonnie Harper will get a price on going back down the whole length of the project to remove all trees on the edge of the ditch that might fall into the ditch later.

A motion was made by Edward Racca, Jr., seconded by Joe Dupont, and unanimously carried to approve the 1st Contractor's Estimate on Project 2004-03, subject to punch list completion as prepared and approved by Engineer Lonnie G. Harper.

Lonnie Harper reported that he prepared a bid package on sandblasting of the Water Control Structures in the Cameron-Creole Watershed. He also stated that water levels are proposed to be raised due to salinities. The agriculture industry has suggested raising levels in the Mermentau Basin to reduce salinities. This will block ingress and egress of organisms. It was agreed by consensus that we write a letter to the Corps of Engineers stating that under the present conditions and with the impact of higher water levels on our natural and historical drainage, any elevated water levels would cause property loss, estuary loss, wetlands loss, and interfere with our watershed management program.

Rusty Welch presented a report to the Board on the Cameron-Creole Watershed. He noted that gate operations went into effect in 1987.

It was discussed and agreed that we will talk to Tina Horn of the Cameron Parish Police Jury regarding organization of a meeting to discuss the continuing salvinia crisis in the parish.

It was agreed that a letter be written and signed on Cameron Parish Gravity Drainage District No. 3 letterhead, authorizing Rusty Welch to represent this Board in the entire area of the Cameron-Creole Watershed. He is gathering data regarding the Cameron-Creole Watershed management and its effects on water levels. Copies of the letter will be sent to Roger Vincent of Miami Corporation, Sweetlake Land and Oil Company, and Henry McCall, and Rusty Welch will be given a copy of the letter.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

On motion of Mr. Meaux, seconded by Mr. Benoit and carried, the financial report was approved.

On motion of Mr. Semien, seconded by Mr. Benoit and carried, the following permits were approved, with (b) having one (1) stipulation:

The Board discussed a proposal submitted by Daniel's Welding & Construction for gate lifting devices for the existing water control structures on the Creole Canal south of Oak Grove and on the Mermentau River west of Lower Mud Lake. Given that the proposal did not include installation, the Board was concerned that the total project cost would facilitate the need to seek three proposals, as required by the Public Bid Law. There was a discussion of ways to cut costs. On motion of Mr. Meaux, seconded by Mr. Semien and carried Bonnie Conner was directed to seek other prices.

There was a discussion of the need to clean out some of the laterals while the weather is dry. Mr. Harper reviewed some of the stipulations of the permit, which expires December, 2005 and reminded the Board that mitigation may be required.

On motion of Mr. Semien, seconded by Mr. Benoit and carried, Lonnie Harper, P. E. was authorized to seek a permit to clean out the east portion of Lateral G.

Leroy Richard discussed the need to restore a "turtle bridge" located on his property which had been dismantled during a previous Police Jury/Drainage project. Police Juror Scott Trahan agreed to re-establish the "turtle bridge" at Police Jury expense. On motion of Mr. Semien, seconded by Mr. Benoit and carried, the Board agreed to limit to fifteen hundred dollars ($1500) the amount the Board would be willing to spend should Police Jury funding not be available.

There being no further business, on motion of Mr. Meaux, seconded by Mr. Benoit and carried, the meeting was declared adjourned.

Cameron Parish EMS
Lower Cameron Parish
Ambulance Service District
Board of Directors Meeting
August 18, 2004

Meeting called to order at 4:00 p.m. by President Phyllis Pinch.

Roll call: Present - Phyllis Pinch, Loston McEvers, Michaeil Booth, Christine Mooney and Jo Ann Nunez.

Additions to the meeting agenda proposed were:

1. Ambulance Personnel Pay scale.

2. Non-Emergency Transfers

Mrs. Booth motioned to approve additions to the agenda. Second by Mr. McEvers. None opposed. Motion carried.

Mr. McEvers motioned to approve the minutes for the July 21, 2004 meeting. Second by Ms. Nunez. None opposed. Motion carried.

Director, Byron Broussard, presented the director's reports for July, which included monthly call volume, asset report, tax revenues received, payment report and expense report.

Mrs. Booth motioned to approve the director's report. Second by Mrs. Mooney. None opposed. Motion carried.

Mr. Broussard discussed the terms of the current Medical Director's contract. He stated that the contract is for an indefinite time period and requires a six-month notice of termination. Mr. McEvers suggested that, in order to make an attempt to reduce the expense of this contract, the district should terminate the current contract and utilize the bid process for a new contract. He motioned to send the current Medical Director a certified letter of termination of the contract to be effective six months from the date of receipt and to include, in the letter, an explanation that bids for the contract will be requested prior to that time. Second by Mrs. Booth. None opposed. Motion carried.

Mrs. Mooney discussed the pay scale for ambulance personnel. She expressed concern that the district should review the pay scale to insure that the salaries and benefits are competitive for the industry and area. She stated that this was imperative for hiring and keeping quality personnel. Mr. Broussard agreed to acquire pay scales and benefit information from other ambulance services in the area for the board's review.

Mrs. Mooney discussed the ambulance crews providing non-emergency transfers for doctor's office and clinic appointments. She stated that emergency coverage of the district would be diminished by doing these type of transfers and that the priority of the district should be emergency services. Mr. McEvers discussed implementing an extra crew for these scheduled transfers, considering that there is a spare ambulance that can be used. Mr. Broussard explained that it would be difficult to require medics who are coming off their normal shift to remain at work for extra hours to do these transfers. Mrs. Pinch suggested offering these off-duty medics an eight-hour schedule on the days that these transfers are done and if the schedule requires, this could be increased to twelve hours for the day. She also stated that these transfers should be done for bed-confined patients only, and this condition should be confirmed in writing by a professional caretaker. Mr. McEvers motioned to approve eight-hour schedules to be offered to off-duty medics in order to do scheduled, non-emergency transfers of bed-confined patients, with the option of increasing this schedule to twelve hours, as the transfers require. Second by Mrs. Mooney. None opposed. Motion carried.

Mr. McEvers discussed the district's personnel providing an emergency first aid in-service for teachers at schools within the district. This would be held on October 4, 2004 at the Professional Development for teachers. He suggested teaching skills in CPR, Choking or Bleeding Management. Mr. Broussard stated that a demonstration of how to treat a choking patient might be the most appropriate for teachers and agreed to prepare and present this. Mr. McEvers asked that Mr. Broussard contact each school to schedule times.

The board adopted the following tax resolution:

RIGHT TO HUNT - FISH - TRAP

A constitutional amendment creating a right to hunt, fish and trap will go on the Louisiana ballot in the Nov. 2 election. The Louisiana legislature approved without any opposition a ballot initiative proposing the amendment as a fundamental right of citizenship. SB2 was introduced in the legislature by Sen. Joe mcPherson and co-authored by 76 of his house and senate colleagues.

This proposed amendment has the support of the Louisiana Wildlife Federation and quite a few other sportsmen and conservation groups.

Those who oppose this Amendment, say that hunting and fishing and trapping are part of Louisiana's custom and no one in his or her right mind wouldn't dream of stopping these events.

Let's look at it another way - we have states that prohibit hunting on certain days, prohibit hunting of certain species, like doves. We're seeing states that have outlawed the electric duck decoy and other hunting and fishing methods such as lead weights, etc.

It's alright to have laws such as lead bans, usage of steel shots and to protect our natural resources, such as limits, days of hunting as well as setting seasons, but that already done, this Amendment is a little extra add on to have the right to hunt, trap and fish for all Louisians.

DUCK SEASON

The duck season for our west zone is only 24 days before opening set for Nov. 13 as of today. I like many others who go in the marsh regular, haven't seen any ducks or coots so far, unless they came in this week. Usually we already have quite a few coots and ducks in our marshes, not counting our blue-wing teals that came earlier or our summer mallards and woodducks that raise here.

The duck count in the middle of Sept. had the west zone with 301,000 ducks, which 251,000 were blue-wing teals. The whole state count on blue-wing teals were only 298,000. Looking at the total harvest of teals for last year in the U S. was 518,600, however the state of Louisiana had a harvest of 204,793, while Texas had a total harvest of 112,554, that comes to a total of 317,347. That's more teals harvested in a 14 day season last year, than we had birds down this season. I hate to see the harvest for this years nine day season.

It is said, that we are supposed to have a troubled season this year on our regular duck season. It will be poor, they say. We'll just have to wait and see if all these duck counts and studies are correct or not.

AREA HUNTING

There were reports of a few deer killed on opening day of gun season, but all I got was a 6-point killed on Grand Chenier for the best deer of the week. The hunter didn't want his name mentioned, but he did tell me he had an 8-point in sight, but a little to far to try a shot. There were quite a few does bagged and most of these will go to make sausage, that is except the back strap and neck meat and that's for the barbeque pit.

Dove hunters had a fair hunt this past weekend, in fact some got their limits. I know I saw a few more doves where I hunt. If we don't get to much more rain, I think we'll still have a fair second split as it is open until Nov. 4.

It's still a little early for rabbits, as most hunters wait for colder weather.

FISHING REPORTS

I got some fairly good fishing reports for the week. Speckle trout on the northern part of Big Lake in the Turner Bay area. Catches of large redfish in schools, working the birds, are being taken on the southern end of Big Lake. Flounders are also hitting along the shoreline and banks of the lake and ship channel.

I didn't get any good reports on the Mermentau River in Grand Chenier on redfish, but a few flounder reports on the mud flats and the old river.

The results of the Triton Western Division Redfish Tournament held on Calcasieu Lake, Big Lake area, showed anglers caught lots of large redfish, however that didn't help out on stringers.

Redfish had to be between 16 inches and 27 inches to be legal for the tournament, so all the large reds had to be released.

Texas anglers placed more anglers on the board than any one else, and the winners Tim Young from Baytown, Tex. and his partner Allen Parker from Port Arthur, Tex. weighed in 15.81 pounds.

Phil (Cajun Phil) and Kevin Broussard, his son, took ninth place with 13 pounds. Bobby Stansel of Hackberry and Will Drost of Lake Charles took a 13 place tie with 12.58 pounds. Other area winners were: Michael and Brett Bares of Sulphur 15th place; John and Brandon Garrison of Sulphur placed 20th.; Greg Gaspard and David Miller of Lake Charles placed 22nd; Mack Huse and Rusty Byler from Hackberry 24th; Steve Mickey and Travis Norwood from Lake Charles 30th; also Bill Dominque (the old Bass Pro) of Sulphur and Ronnie Doucette made the top 35 teams.

All in all, this was a good tournament!

Deer season in the marsh

By C. A. MHIRE

The weekend of Oct. 9 marked the opening of muzzleloader season and rekindled in most deer hunters a fire that had been smoldering for nine months now. The main reason I like muzzleloading is the opportunity to spend some time in the field before gun season and pickup on where the deer are. This looks to be an extraordinary season for deer hunting.

For the marsh hunters good or bad, low water or high water, the deer are always there. This year the water is just right and if you start your year over a patch of deer peas you should find deer. I spent the first five days of muzzleloader season in the marsh in several different areas and have seen more deer in this time than I saw all last year.

Opening day I watched a six point follow a doe from 4 p.m.until dark indicating prerut activities. Opening weekend we should see some good bucks.

For the few blessed hunters on the ridge who still have cover in the woods to sustain a deer herd, this year is your year. Most of these areas have been cleared off by our cattle farmers leaving little room for nature to exist.

When I was a child I always heard that when the water in the marsh rises it would push the deer to the ridges. My opinion is, if there is enough rain throughout the summer to maintain a certain moisture content, the deer will stay on the ridge all year, thus allowing the overall deer herd to prosper with less stress than if they were all confined to the marsh.

In June and July we had an unusually wet summer which produced an over abundance of mast crop (acorns, pecans, etc.) and should also bring a much needed change for the hunters in the woods.

Tarpons win district matchup Friday night

BY CHRIS MUELLER

The South Cameron Tarpons whipped district rival Merryville 41-6 in a district matchup in Creole Friday night. The Tarpons scored four touchdowns in the second quarter to move to 6-1 overall and 2-1 in district.

The big homecoming crowd had a lot to cheer about as the Tarpons displayed a balanced attack with 168 yards on and the ground and 203 yards passing.

Quarterback Andre Savoie tossed four TD passes with three of them going to Dominique LeBlanc. LeBlanc caught five passes for 128 yards and added 42 yards on the ground. He scored on receptions of 51, 55, and 5 yards. LeBlanc also rushed for a five yard touchdown.

Matthew Styron scored on a three yard run in the fourth quarter. He picked up 31 yards on 13 carries.

Bart Vidrine had the other touchdown for the Tarpons on a 10 yard pass from Savoie. Savoie passed for 203 yards on 11 of 18 passes. Jared Morales caught three balls for 40 yards and Vidrine had two catches for 30 yards.

The Tarpon defense came up big again, holding the Panthers to five first downs and 87 total yards the entire game. South Cameron kept the Panthers pinned in their own territory for most of the game.

State search to provide appropriate education

Governor Kathleen Blanco has proclaimed October as Child Search month in Louisiana. This recogniztion acknowledges the programs in each parish school system, which attempt to locate and identify individuals from ages 3 through 21 years of age who may require special education services.

The division of Special Populations, Louisiana Department of Education has established a standard procecure for the identificaiton, screening, and evaluation of exceptional children between the ages of 3 and 21. Cameron Parish School Board's child Search Program is part of this statewide effort to provide all children an appropriate educaion.

Early Steps, is Louisiana's early intervention program under the Department of Health and Hospitals. Services through this program are available to infants and toddlers birth to three with disabilities.

Any individual, ages 3 through 21, may be referred for an evaluation if he or she seems to need special services to receive a proper education or in need of early intervention services.

Services are provided through the schools system to children from ages 3 to 21 years of age, who experience health difficulties, mental disabilities, hearing or visual impairments, learning disabilities, speech/language impairments, emotional or behavioral difficulties. Children enrolled in school who exhibit accelerated skills or special talents are also eligible for specialized educational services.

Here is a good reason to call:

1. A child may have disabilities as a result of a low birth rate or a genetic/medical condition. Delays in developmental skills may be exhibited by difficulties talking, seeing, hearing, moving, learning, or behaving. Failure to perform the previously listed skills at the appropriate age/grade level may also be an indicator of a disability.

2. A child may be gifted and/or talented.

3. Dropouts: Programs are available for you if you are 21 years of age or under and have dropped out of Special Education.

To refer a child or to request additional informaiton, please contact Willyne Kestel, Supervisor of Special Education or Donna Kaufman, Child Search Coordinator at 775-7570 ext. 35 or write to Cameron Parish School Board, P. O. Box 1548, Cameron, LA 70631.

To refer a child or to request additional information about Early Steps, Louisiana's early intervention program under the Department of Health and Hospitals, please contact Kellye Gandy Anderson, Early Steps Regional Coordinator at 475-3218.

FERRY

However, he said "the real problem today is that we have not yet learned how to love one another," and when we do "we will take a quantum leap in solving those other problems."

Sanner presented the key to Cameron Parish to Rep. Quezaire, reminding him that his position as chairman of the House Transportation Committee put him in a good position to help Cameron Parish get a bridge to connect people even better.

Rev. Hubbard echoed other speakers, noting the connections a ferry makes between commerce and people, and said "We need to leave a tangible legacy to our children. It's a new day now, no matter what our differences may have been."

A special Community Service Award was presented to the Cameron NAACP Chapter by Luverda Batiste, of Model Inc. 21st Century, expressing the thanks of Gary Bledsoe, Texas NAACP President.

SOUTH CAMERON NUMBER ONE

With a 3-0 victory over the Vinton Lions and the ruling of Boston High School ineligible for championship honors, the South Cameron Tarpons moved into the undisputed lead in District 4-AA this week.

Boston was knocked out of the district race when the Louisiana High School Athletic Association discovered that one of the school's players lived outside the school district.

The Tarpons win over Vinton last week gave the team a perfect 6-0-0 record, the Tarpons' 6-6 tie with Boston the previous week having been erased by the new ruling.

It took a 25-yard field goal by Parry LaLande in the last four seconds of the Vinton game to prevent the Tarps having their record blemished with a 0-0 tie with Vinton.

HOMECOMING COURT

Members of the South Cameron Homecoming Court are Vickie Kelley, Debbie Conner, Anna Savoie, Dianne Broussard, Mary Kelly, Antonette LeBlanc, Gay Lynn Porche and Tina Theriot.
