PRINCIPAL

Our state, district, and local schools are faced with the challenges brought on by the accountability act recently passed by the state legislature.

Each individual school will need to improve on its performances to meet the new accountability laws. I am confident that our children shall continue to excel above the state average.

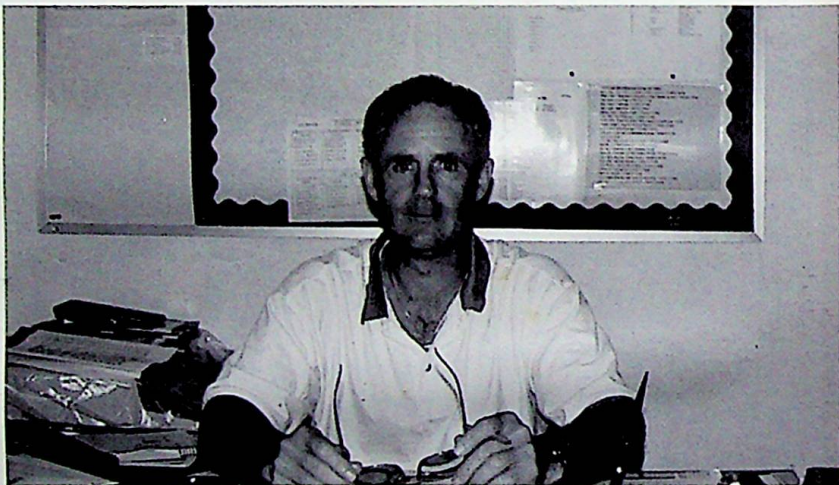

Each of us must be dedicated to making the changes necessary to accomplish the task set before us. No one group can do it alone, but with a team concept, we can reach our goal of preparing each child for his or her personal goal in life.

AUSTIN LABOVE

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

I have served Hackberry High School in various capacities as teacher, athletic director, head coach for basketball, track, and golf, and presently as your assistant principal. I want to thank the faculty, students, and community of Hackberry for giving me these opportunities. Together we can make a difference.

Sincerely,
COACH BYRON GIBBS

SCHOOL BOARD MEMBER

I would like to extend my congratulations to the principal, staff, and faculty of our school for another successful year.

As we move into the next millenium, there will be tremendous obstacles to confront in public education. Through the many efforts of our administration, faculty, and citizens of Hackberry, we must meet these new challenges for the sake of ALL our children.

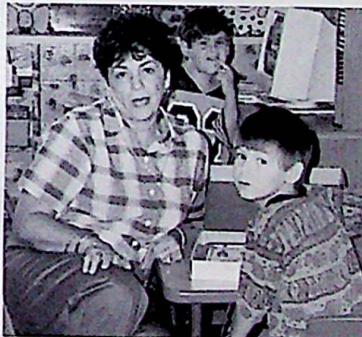

I would like to compliment the students on their many achievements during the 1997-1998 school year. We should all feel a sense of pride and honor to be associated with such fine young people.

It has been a privilege to represent you on the school board for the past four years. I take pride in having been a part of Hackberry High as a graduate, a parent, and as your school board member. May God bless all of you.

FIFTH GRADE FOLKS

D.A.R.E. Graduation was held on Thursday, March 19. Mr. Wayne Batts, representing Cameron Parish School Board, joined Mr. Austin LaBove and Officer Ron Johnson in awarding diplomas to the D.A.R.E. graduates.

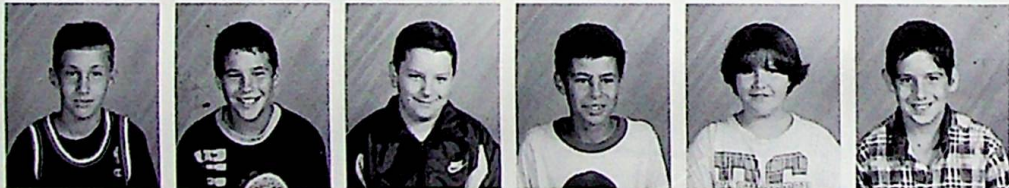

D.A.R.E. (Drug Abuse Resistance Education), a 17-week course sponsored by the Cameron Parish Sheriff's Department, is designed to empower elementary students with the information and commitment to stay drug-free and violence-free. DARE Officer, Ron Johnson, and high school senior role models, Darrell Duhon and Sheree Abshire, provided instruction and support throughout the program. Each student was required to write an essay on taking a stand against drugs and violence. Winning essays were written by Hillary LaBove, Kayleigh Stansel, and Jason Ducote. The following were excerpts from these essays: "I think D.A.R.E. has been a valuable learning experience. It teaches us a lot about the peer pressures that will influence decisions that we will make in our lives. We need to help people who do drugs — help them to learn the risks of using them. People who can make the right decision will succeed in life." A graduation ceremony where each student received a T-shirt and diploma highlighted the completion of the course. Graduation was followed by a pizza party to celebrate.

Betty Hicks
"Miss Betty"

JUNIORS CAPTURE A NIGHT OF DREAMS

DREAMLAND CAPTIVATES SENIORS OF '98

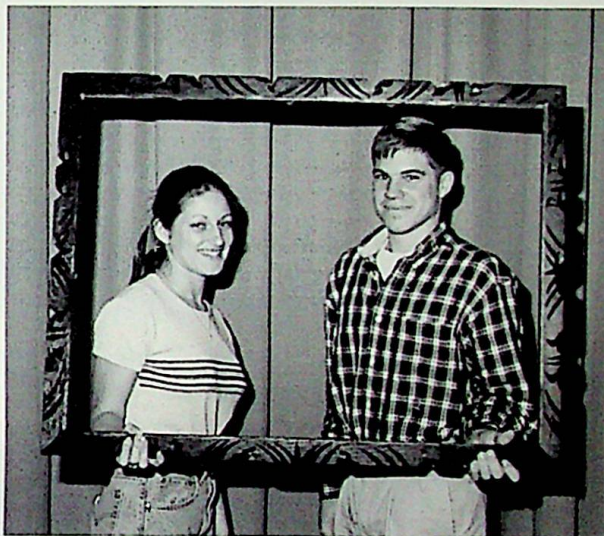

CLASS FAVORITES GET FRAMED!

NINTH GRADE

Picture This: Brandy Doucette and Trent Core enter high school and become favorite freshmen.

TENTH GRADE

1, 2, 3, say cheese: Jackie Gross and Trevor Duhon strike the perfect pose as super sophomores.

ELEVENTH GRADE

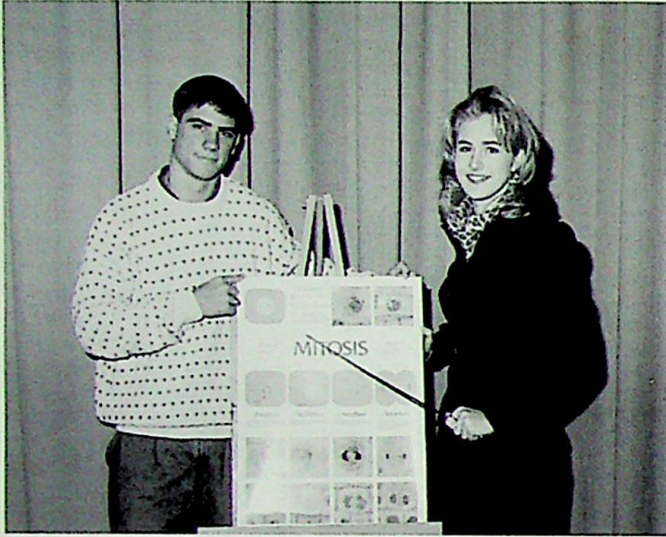

Smile, you're on candid camera! Mary Devall and Chris Brown, you're this year's junior jewels.

TWELFTH GRADE

A picture is worth a thousand words. Our two smiling seniors are Julia Sanders and T. J. Murphy

INTELLIGENT

Julia Sanders and Darrell Duhon move to the head of the class. You are both front runners for success.

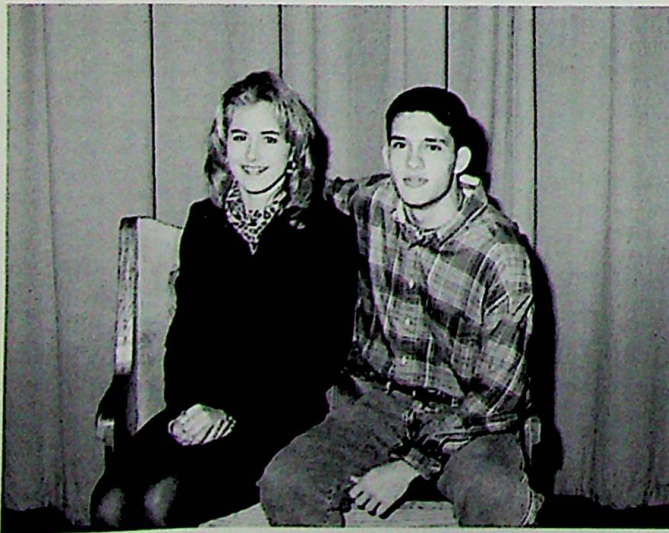

ATHLETIC

Sticks and stones may break my bones, but sports will never hurt me. Shelly, T. J., and Carissa — a tough trio.

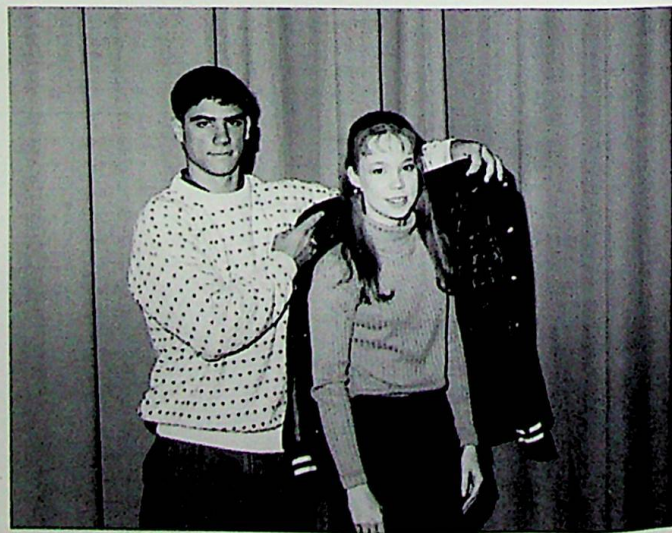

HIGH SCHOOL FAVORITES

ATTRACTIVE

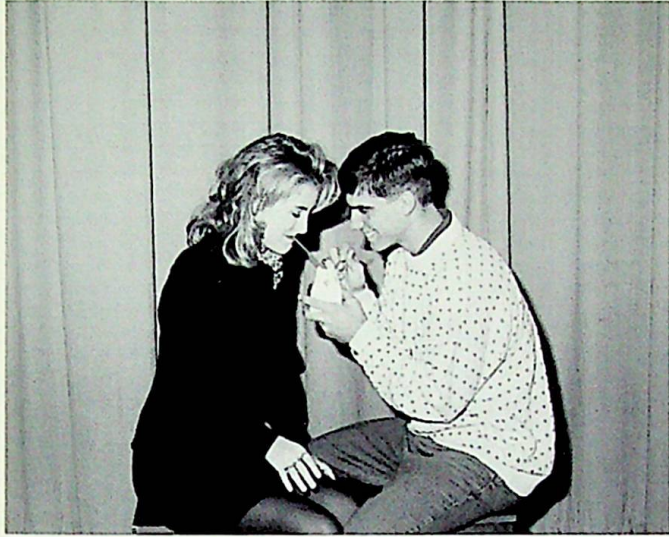

These two cuties are cousins. Julia Sanders and Brady Abshire also double, so to speak, as a twin.

POLITE

It pays to be nice. Well, Marcie Seay and Darrell Duhon are nice because that's just who they are.

FRIENDLY

Julia and Darrell's smiles seem to brighten a room when they enter. You've got a friend in them.

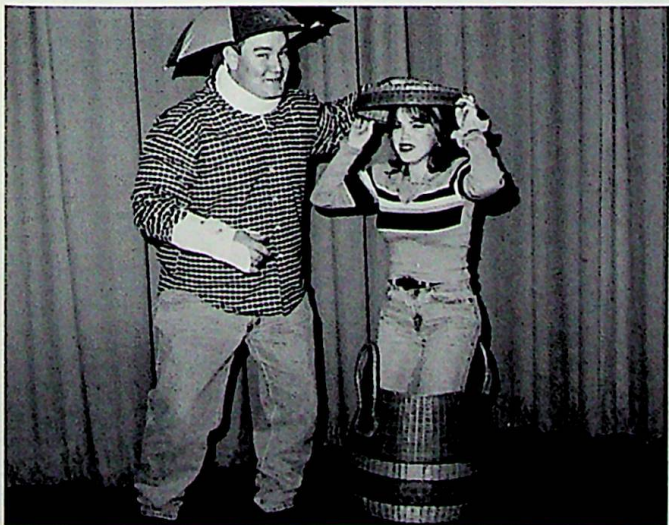

WELL DRESSED

Mirror, mirror on the wall, who's the most stylish of all? No doubt, Mary Devall and Brady Abshire are.

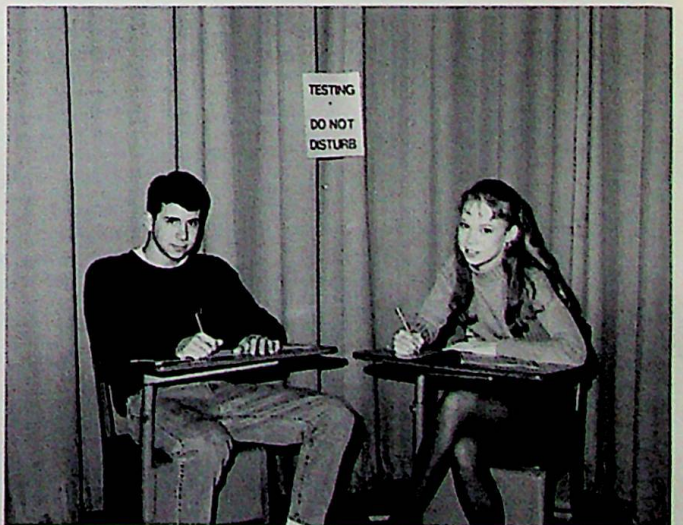

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

WITTY

A tisket a tasket Lindy's in a basket, and Rusty must protect his brain from rain. You vote: Sane or insane?

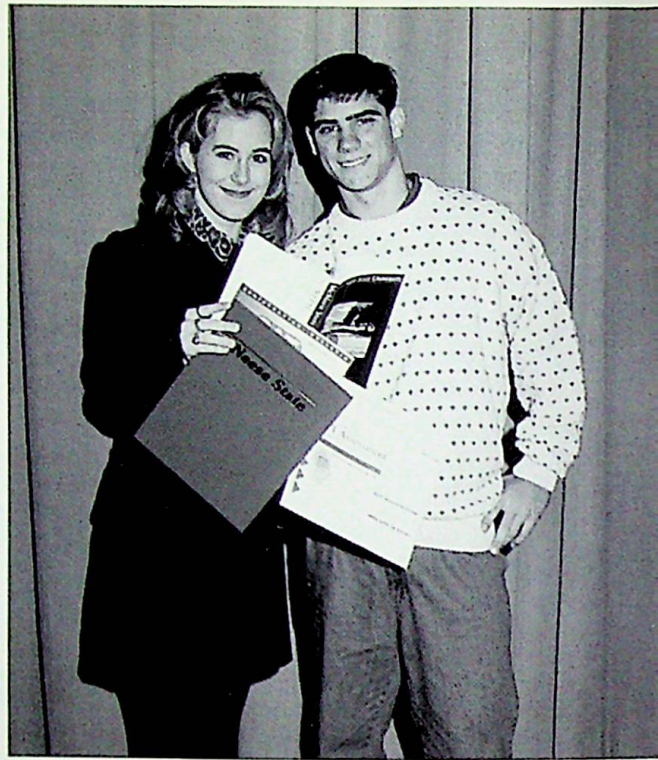

QUIET

What did you say? I can't hear you. Marcie Seay and K. J. Kovach believe that there's no need to shout.

*The years have flown so swiftly by
Through grade school and then Junior High.
Now Seniors about to graduate,
Oh, if we could say, "just wait".
To hold you back would be so wrong,
To let you go and say, "so long"
Is what we know that we must do
And wish Good Luck to you and you.
So to Lori and Julia from Mom and Dad,
We're so proud of you and hope you will have
Some treasured memories of HHS
And the knowledge that you've done your best.
All of our love — Mom, Dad, and Paige*

*Its been a long climb,
That was difficult some of the time;
So when the day came for your graduation,
It was reason for celebration;
Lets be "frank" and not "duck" the truth,
We were all ready to raise the roof.*
