KEEPING America strong and free is a big job. A job requiring constant progress and more electrical power. Most of this will come from investor-owned electric companies, like Gulf States.

It's your job, too. Education holds the key to our success as

FACULTY

Only a photograph of a building, you say? How mistaken you are! To an outsider, yes, this is just another building - but to the students of Hackberry High School it means much more. The friends made here, the achievements won, the disappointments suffered, and the knowledge acquired here have made H.H.S. a very special building.

It would be hard to forget the crowded halls... the hours wasted during study hall... the assemblies... the excitement of a close game... the detention slips... the bumpy bus rides... cramming for tests... the discussions in class... the mad scramble for the door...

And so, here is your book, the 1966 ROUND-UP, which we give to you so that you will never forget this past year in good old H.H.S.

Principal's Message

Students of Hackberry High School,

I wish to take this opportunity to congratulate and thank the Round-Up Staff and their sponsors for providing us with a superior yearbook. I urge all at Hackberry High School to set forth for themselves the following concepts of good citizenship:

Be mindful of the rights of others, of their importance as individuals and as contributors to a good society. Do not frown upon the attainment of those who try and fail nor frown upon those more fortunate in accomplishment.

Evaluate each person in his own sphere with an open mind, a kindly heart, a gentle manner. Be tolerant without condoning that which is wrong.

Be kind but firm in our determination to mold stronger character. Always use the educational advantages that are ours to build for a better living. Never forget that our generation can repay those who made possible our school system only by giving future generations greater advantages. At all times exemplify good citizenship and civic pride by proper care of the buildings and grounds insuring to present and future students a wholesome, clean, and beautiful school environment.

Exhibit in all activities, both academic and extracurricular, sportsman-like conduct that will reflect credit on your school and community. Always realize that the school and community complement each other, and therefore, serve both willingly and unselfishly, giving to each our best talents and highest endeavor that ours may be a better society because we have made it so. And, above all, humbly and reverently serve the Creator and Giver of all things--our God.

John A. DeBarge

Foreword

As you leaf through these pages, may the warm, happy memories of the classmates, teachers, activities, and events that were a part of our school life at Hackberry High School come alive before your eyes. As a treasure book, many years hence it can be your link with those acquaintances who will share these recollections with you though you be miles apart. Mellowed by sober thoughts, brightened by the humorous touch, enlivened by familiar faces, endeared by messages your friends have penned, it is very personally yours.
