NOTE FROM OUR EDITORS

I have enjoyed working on the yearbook for the past four years. It has been a lot of fun but also a lot of work. Just remember each time you buy a yearbook you are buying something that will never let you forget all the good and bad times at HHS.

Carla Frey

Writing an editor's note is like taking a stroll down memory lane for me. I have enjoyed every minute of my time spent at H.H.S. Now mind you, not all great times, but times to remember. This is what a good yearbook is all about. I think this year, we, the Mustang Staff, have gathered togetherness, in these pages, memories to be shared by all. This has been my final year at good ole H.H.S. so thank you fellow students, faculty and last but not least Mrs. LaFleur.

Joni Gray

It has been a pleasure as well as a learning experience serving as co-editor of this 1977-78 school year. I would like to extend thanks to my fellow staff members. I truly feel everyone has done their part in building this wonderful treasure chest of memories. I feel if we are successful in providing you with a means of remembering the glee, agony, and excitement that was experienced at H.H.S. in the past school year, then truly our efforts were not in vain.

Sincerely,
co-editor, Penny Lynn Riggs

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE SENIORS OF 1978

We, the Seniors of 1978, residents of Hackberry, Cameron Parish, Louisiana, being of lawful age and of sound and disposing mind and memory, and under no restraint, do publish and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all Wills and Codicils made by us heretofore.

I, Jeff Addison, will to Susan Frey, the ability to stay out all night without drinking miller lite and still staying slim and trim.

I, Penny Baley, will to Joan Lowery, my great intelligence, so when she says, "It takes a genius," she will truly be one.

I, Penny Baley, will to Robert Poole, my little red car in hopes that he will slow down when driving.

I, Pat Burlingham, will to Gayle Pitre, the traditional wash rags.

I, Julie Cuvillier, will to Carolyn Hebert, my mouth so that she can talk faster in times of despair.

I, Dana Dickerson, will to David Vaughan, my ability to shoot a bank shot, with this he might win a game or two of horse.

I, James Ducote, will to Gabe Gallegos, the will power to stay in school all day without checking out.

I, Carla Frey, will to Russie Buford, the ability to stay away from the Pizza Hut one Friday night.

I, Joni Gray, will to Blaine Johnson, my wardrobe I wore while showing livestock. (Maybe the judge will recognize you and think you are me.)

I, Joni Gray, will to Kelli Vincent, all of my turtle neck shirts and scarves so that she can hide her Monday morning blues.

I, Brenda Hebert, will to Floyd East, my tape collection so he can jam to the song "Running on Empty, Running on Dry." by Jackson Brown.

I, Shayne Hinton, will to Julie Trahan, my courage and desire to go and have a good time without worrying about Mom and Dad finding out. (You will learn some day, Julie.)

I, Shayne Hinton, being of sound mind and plenty body do hereby will to Melanie Broussard my Farrah Faucet figure, which she seems to be acquiring and my list of reasons for leaving school. (Which you do not need.)

I, Charles "Peanut" Kershaw will to Chris LeJeune my 40 acres adjoining Carter's Peanut Farm.

I, Joseph LeJeune, will to Jeff Gibbs, my ability and courage to attempt to ride a bull.

I, Frances Lyons, will to Christine Powers, the unique ability to speak fluent French without stuttering over Je and J'ai and to know the difference.

I, Randy Melancon, will to Jason Debarge, our very large oak tree and all of its acorns. EAT Jason EAT!

I, JoAnn Morgan, will to Danny Boy, the ability to grow up and be Danny Man.

I, Cheryl Navarre, will to Raymond Hicks, the male starring role in Three's Company.

I, Cheryl Navarre, will to Liz Sanders, a week of nightly lessons on why Chevrolet trucks bog while parking, and why Ford trucks do not. And everything I know about Ford trucks, I will teach you Liz!

I, Mark Navarre, will to John Johnson, a free ticket for a hair cut at my future dentist office.

I, Stephenie Pearson, in sound stare of mind do hereby will to Douglas Mosley, the scholastic and interscholastic ability to achieve mountains out of hills and oceans out of streams. To know the difference from fighting and picking and the courage to accept the latter with good grace. A good sharp pair of scissors and the hope that one day you'll know what their purpose is for.

I, Kenneth Pooser, will to Greg Miller, my muscular Charles Atlas arms, my powerful O. J. Simpson legs, and my conceited Muhamid Ali head.

I, Kenneth Pooser, will to Shanna Wincent my ability to walk with my head in the clouds and still have a good sense of direction.

I, Penny Riggs, will to LuLu Hicks, my poise and gracefulness so that in the future her toes will be free from danger.

I, Susan Spicer, will to Catherine Walther my brother (the organ player) to teach her that the bass pedals are to be played with the feet. Catherine you no longer have to get your knees dirty playing them with your hands.

I, Margaret Walther, will to Bill McGrath, a life size Robert Poole punching bag so he can fight him without being hit back.

By This You're Bound

You are not bound to win each game,
But you are bound to be
The kind of player who leaves the court,
Head high and conscience-free.
You are not bound to earn each game
The victor's golden crown,
But in defeat you must stand tall;
By this you're always bound.
And you're not bound to win if it
Means win a any cost,
But you are bound to keep the rules
Though every game is lost.
Nor are you bound to win at all
If in the victo. earned,
Your self-respect and honor leave
To nevermore return.

PRINCIPAL

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

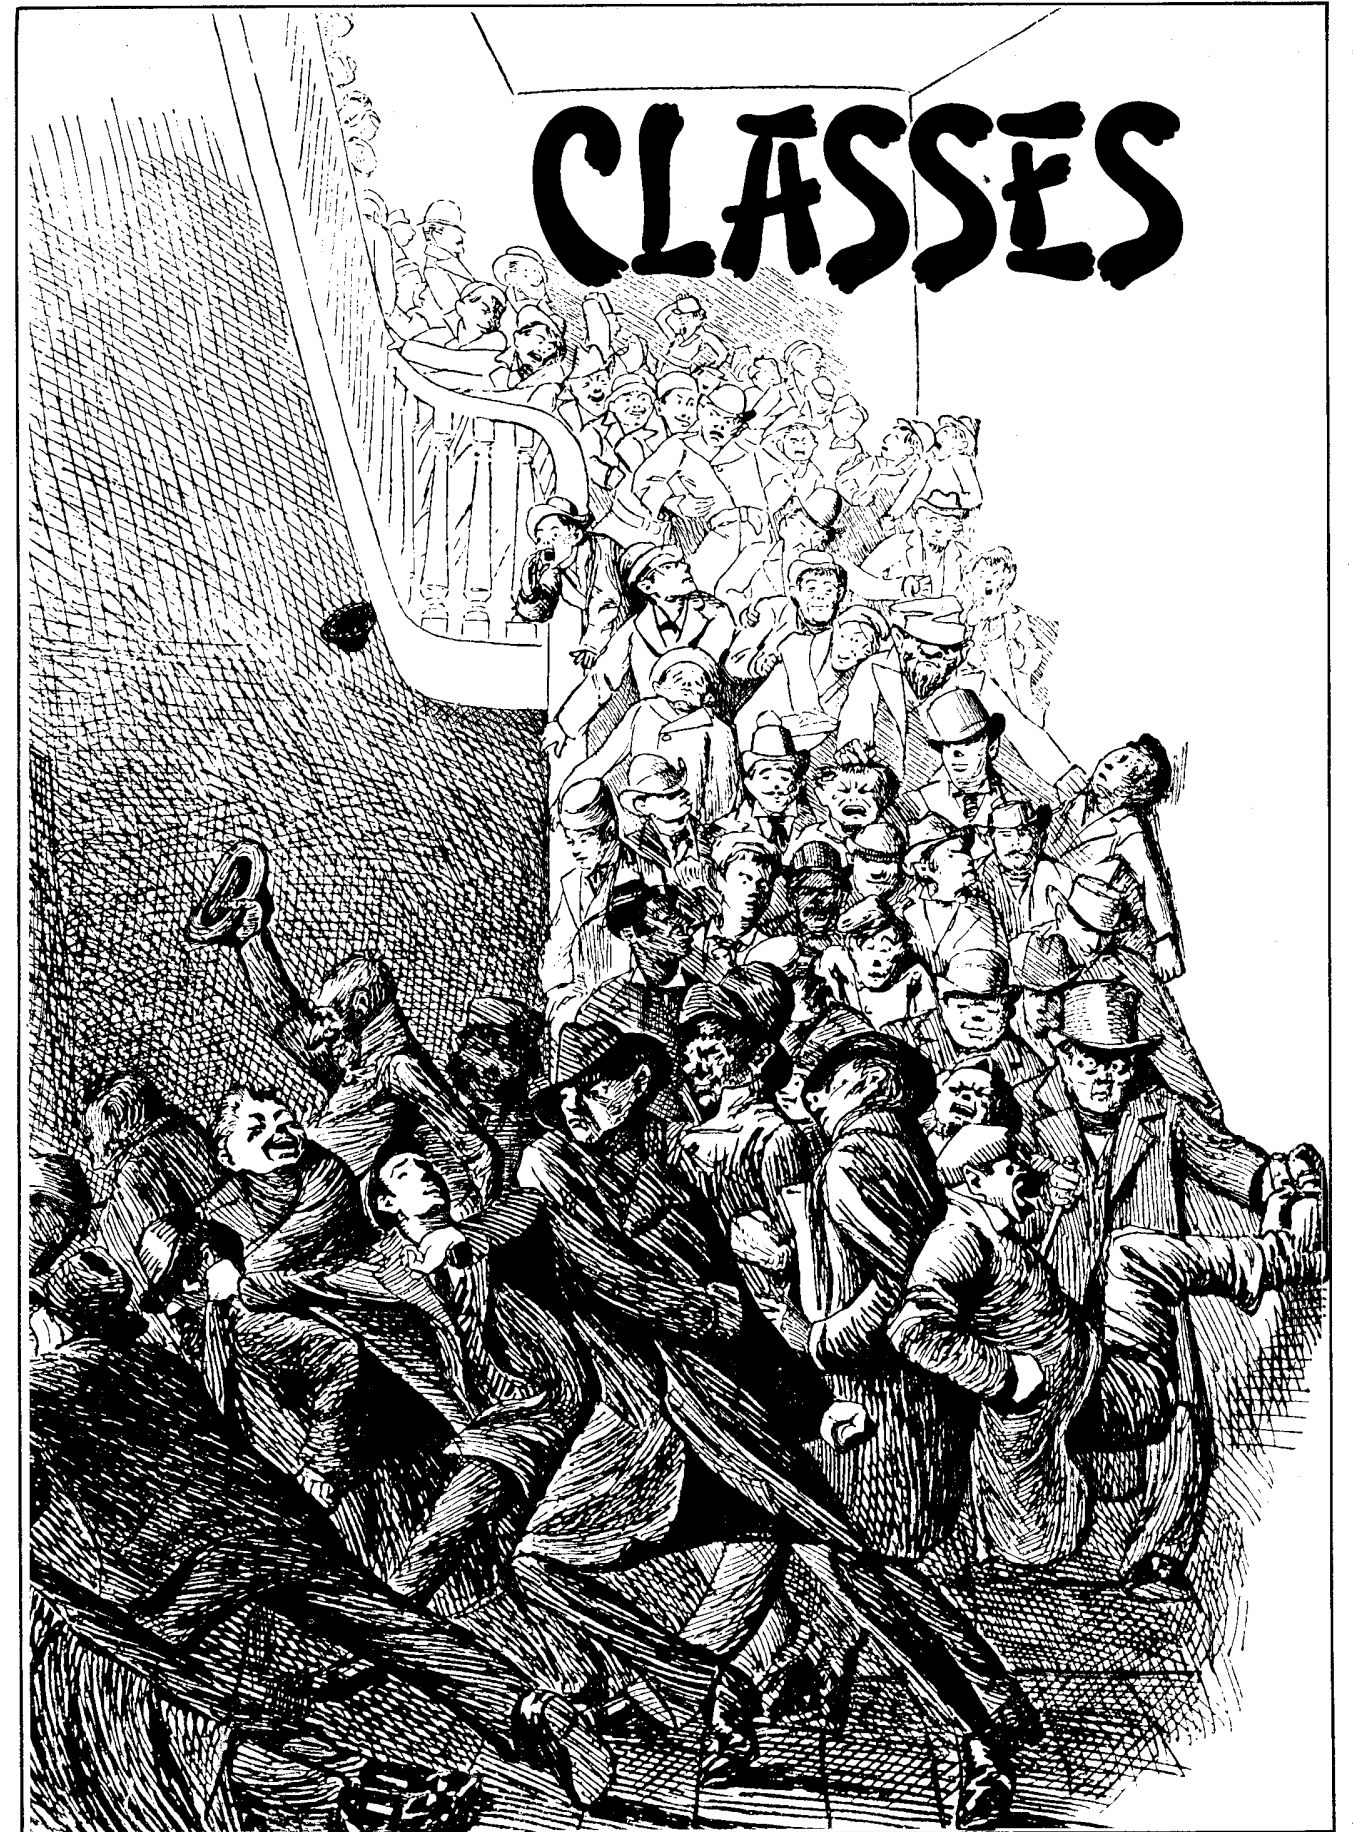

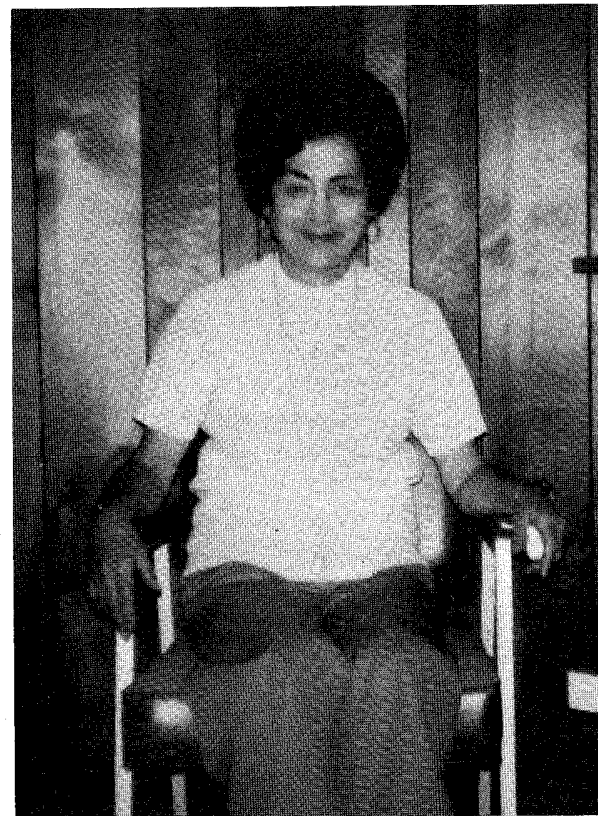

Don't sit idle and let the world pass you by. As a student you should be involved in the school to learn your role in life as an adult. Learn how our government functions. Take pride in your school, community, state, and nation. Be an active member of society. Do your share to make this nation a better one in which to live. No doubt this country needs leaders. However, just as importantly, it needs active members who are willing to work to keep it strong. A nation is only as strong as its people. Stand up and be counted as a strong member of this wonderful nation. "No one is better than you, but you are no better than anyone else until you do something to prove it." (Laird) Prove that you are worthy of respect from others. And as you prove yourself to others, the country will be proving itself to other countries. You and other members of society will be proving that the United States of America is the best.

FAREWELL MESSAGE

It has truly been an honor to serve the people of this fine community and to represent you on the Cameron Parish School Board. Much progress has been made through the combined efforts of the school board and administration staff along with the support of the people. Kindergarten, vocational agriculture, remedial reading, special ed., speech therapy, and French have been made in to the school's curriculum. Physical improvements and additions have been made to the school plant. In addition to a good program and a fine faculty, we have been fortunate to have an outstanding facility. I have enjoyed serving as your school board member and hope that our school and community will continue to grow and prosper.

Mr. C.A. Riggs
