1968 REBELS

JOHNSON BAYOU SCHOOL
JOHNSON BAYOU, LOUISIANA

We, the Senior Class of 1968, wish to dedicate the 1968 REBEL to Mr. Leger. He has taught us encouragement, responsibility, the meaning of education, respect and graditude.

We are sorry that you are leaving us. We thank you for all that you have done for us.

D E D I C A T I O N

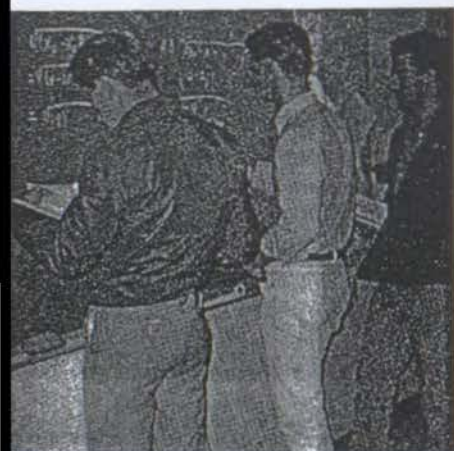

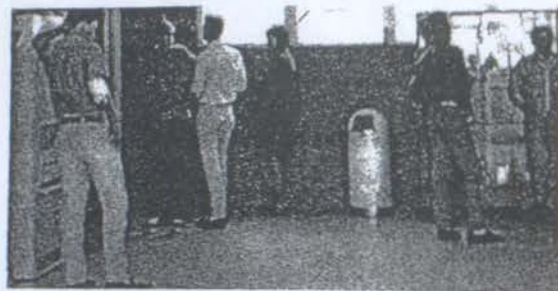

FOREWORD

The Senior Class of 1968 presents this annual to you as a memory book and as a record of events which occurred this school year. In the future we hope that this book serves as a golden ray of gladness from the past.

Mrs. Hambrick
Sponsor

A school is more than just people, more than just a building. It is all of these and more -- the first day... the last day... all the in-between days. With all of this and more we have JOHNSON BAYOU SCHOOL!!

Principal,
Mr. Joseph Sonnier

At the close of this school year, Mr. Sonnier will leave to begin work on his doctorate. We wish to honor him by picturing him in a few of his yearly duties.

The senior class presenting Mr. Sonnier a watch.

Checking the classes and students.

Giving awards and greeting the homecoming queen.

1-2. "Surprise! Happy Birthday!" 3. Those two again. 4. The little people. 5. 3 stooges + 1. 6. Spring has sprung. 7. This is just too, too much. 8. Tarzan. 9. The poor little girl did not have a chance. 10. Our gang. 11. We could have danced all night... if they had stayed off of our feet.

Now, what in the world is this?

How Should I know.

Education proceeds even with-the teacher.

No wonder Sleeping
Beauty slept so long...

Prince Charming is asleep, too.

Effigy of whom?

M.H. "Only one person at a time."

Only P., you and I knew--
so why the fuss?

That's life!!

The end of summer meant the end of beach parties. It also meant the beginning of both school and cold weather. This brought some of our favorite holidays: Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year. With the new year came Easter, the banquet, the prom and graduation. Our happiness and celebrations are depicted on the following pages.

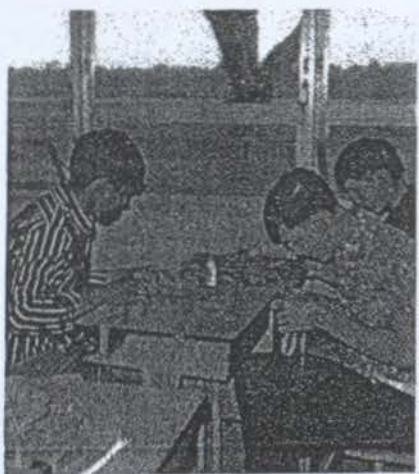

The last beach party... before cold weather and school.

Rose Ann wins the floral arrangement.

Everyone agreed that they are dancing.

All get a gift.

Thanks a lot, Dan.

The Christmas play was really good.

These snapshots help to tell a story, a story of our school this year. We help to tell the story, too. We are in the pictures.
