Damian shows his support for Kyle.

The Civics class participated in an election activity where students grouped to form 4 political parties. They had to run a campaign which included creating a party name, slogan, flyers, commercials, and participating in a campaign rally.

John and his campaign manager, Krystal, talk to voters about the issues.

Campaign Slogans

Put the mouse head of the house.
Vote MIKEY!

VETERANS DAY

November 11

To help students learn about the meaning of Veteran's Day, a flag coloring contest was held and questionnaires were completed. The flags were then displayed. Veterans were also honored at a home basketball game.

BETA DECEMBER 8

BETA members attended the District Conference in Lake Charles and the State Conference in Baton Rouge. They also held a "Penny Wars". Classes had to see how many penny they could collect. Other classes could put other coins in to reduce the class amount. Over $1,000 was raised.

TAKE GOOD CARE OF MY BABY

December

Home Economics students were given mechanical babies that they had to bring home and take care of. If the baby cried there was a special key that would stop the crying. Brodie took his home for the weekend and the baby wouldn't stop crying he was up all night. The next day, Ms. LeBleu had to meet him to fix it.

Black History Month FEBRUARY

Stephanie Cox received first place in the essay contest held in February. Students wrote about black people who had made an important contribution. She wrote about Charles Drew, who discovered how to store blood. This led to creation of blood banks. Ironically, Mr. Drew died in a car accident. He was refused help at a white hospital. By the time he drove to a place where he could get help, he had lost too much blood.

Junior Prophecy

We foresee Brodie, Juicefruit, Trahan becoming America's Goodwill Ambassador. His idea of passing on a Juicefruit is the latest fad across the nation. Young and old alike now exchanging a slice, making life a little kinder for everyone. Brodie's even been asked to run for president. Hey, Brodie, we've got your campaign slogan. "Take a slice from me and whatever will be will be".

Then there's Eric. Watch out for that tree, Budon opening a wrecker service with special rates for teen drivers. Eric knows from experience that this is where the money is.

And it's Matthew. Watch out for that dick, LaBallave owner of the hottest dance club in town. Rave is the second and Matthew's moves are the main attraction. What's the name of this popular stop? Wash out!

And then there's Shelley. Two dips and I'm gone, Trahan finally figuring out a way to keep Jody from guarding her Bie at all times. She's become a man! There's another "Big Guy" in her life. Oh no, Jody's always a priest. Good Luck, Shelley.

We foresee Beth, Bethel, O'Shields, as the new WWF Women's World Champion. Beth is touring the country in her Tour Bus with Mom as her driver and Dad as her bodyguard. Just like Beth to keep it in the family.

It looks like Krystal, I run a mile a day, Ellender has found a place in politics. She's running for Congress with her eye on the White House. Her campaign slogan is a hit, "Work from 10 to 2 and then we're through". And we thought she would have to wake up to the real world one day.

Let's hear it for Chelsey. Best a move, Bourgeois landing a job at the Hard Rock Cafe in New York City while trying out on Broadway. What a life! Bastin! It by day and then by night! You go girl!

Well, it's Amanda. I'll grow one day, Roberts making a break-through discovery as a research scientist. Of course you've guessed it! It's a new growth pill that's guaranteed to add 6 inches to your height. Wow, Amanda, now you'll be able to reach Casey's elbows! Get your Squirt Sport! On Sale Now!

We foresee Lacey, But I didn't do it, Rodrigue becoming the country's top trial lawyer. Lacey's success stems from her belief that the other guy surely did it. She's even written a top seller, How To Get Your Way In Just One Trial.

Let's not forget Tasha, Oops, I did it again, Roberson becoming a stand up comic. She realized she might have a chance at the big time when she got so many laughs at the police station when explaining her latest "accident". She's even got a intro-song for her shows. It's called "Ditch this".

And finally there's Johana. It doesn't matter to me, Williams replacing Dear Abby as the world's most beloved advice columnist. She may not be vocal but she sure can write you a lecture. Her column, Tella Johana, is so popular that they are thinking of creating a doll named after her. Look out Barbie, your days are numbered.

Senior Will

I, Lacey D'Lyn Rodrigue, would first like to thank God for his patience and inspiration with me during these past 18 years. I want to thank my mom for her love, guidance and support. We have been through a lot together. You mean the world to me, whether or not I always show it. I would also like to thank my family, teachers, and close friends for believing in me. I will to leave my milk from lunch everyday and my ability to eat and drive. To Amber, my patience with others, the ability to wash your car, and my captain position on the basketball team. I am really going to miss you, and I wish you the best of luck next year. To Ashley I leave my seat on the bus, and Ashley, please stay out of the trashcan. To Megan and Brina, I thank you for all the laughs and good times, especially on long bus rides. To Misty, I leave my acting ability from the "Chemistry Movie". Thanks for brightening my senior year. To Misty, I leave my bright; it might come in handy for you one day. To Beas and Taylor, I leave my study habits and patience to do homework. To Amber, Ashley, Misty, Brina, and Megan my eternal love and friendship; I will only be a phone call away. And in the basketball team, I leave my love and support. I am going to miss all of you so very much. It is hard to think that I won't be playing with you next year, but I wish you luck. Just try your best; I know you can beat Hackberry. To my senior class, my family, my friends, and my past teachers, I thank you for the memories and for putting up with my complicated ways. You all will always hold a place in my heart.

I, Elizabeth O'Shields, will to Ashley and Misty my friendship, and thanks for the rides home when I needed one. To Andrea, I will a tank of gas and a pair of brakes. To Amber and Nataska, I leave my love and my thanks for being there for me when I needed you both. Amber, I will my ability to be nice to the little kids even though they may get on your nerves. Nataska I will my common sense. We all know you should have been a blonde. To the Sophomore Girls, thanks for always giving me the notes to Free Enterprise, when I was absent the day before. To the Sophomore Boys, I will my ability to sit in Miss. Claudel's class and get away without paying attention and not getting written up. To Misty, I will my blazer full of paper and a pen to write with when you have none. To John Snyder, I will my thanks for always being there to make me laugh. To the Limo gang, I say thanks for making my Prom a memory for life. I love everyone of you. To Charles Trahan, thanks for always being there when I needed you. Thanks for being 23 in my eyes. Lacey, thank you for always being there when I needed you. Chelsey, I leave my love and friendship. Thanks to Lacey (my niece), I leave my ability to slide by when the grades were bad and make it out of here without ever failing. To Rayne and Reagan, I leave my love. To Nancy (Mrs. Branda), I leave my many thanks for pushing me to do my best. Without you I wouldn't be here today to graduate as a Senior of 2001. To Ms. Nita, I leave you as car thanks for all the smiles you have put on my face. To Ryan, thanks for being there when I needed you. To Desi, even though we aren't close I thank you for believing in me when no one else did. I love you even though we fight a lot. Heathie, there just isn't enough words for me to say thank you. I love you Bubba. To my Mom, thanks for everything. I know I have been a pain to your side, but never forget that I love you. Thanks for writing all my papers that I never wanted to write. And thanks for pushing me all the way through school. And I hope I have made you proud. And to my Dad, thanks for the money when I needed it even though I had to fight to get it. And thanks for everything you both have been wonderful parents. And last but not least to my Senior Class, thanks for accepting me when I moved here. Thanks for being there to pick me up when I feel and for all the good times we have had. I love you all. And to everyone at JBHS, thanks for everything.

I will all my athletic ability to my brother and to Damian. To all my little cousins I will the courage to stand up for what you think is right. To Mrs. Juanita I want to thank you for making it so hard on me so I would pass and get out of here. Also Mr. Larry, thanks for getting me out of class when you needed help. I will my locker to whoever wants it. I didn't use it any ways. And my lock rolling skills to Misty and a cinder block to see out the school windows. To Brodie, thanks for talking me out of doing a lot of stupid things. One more thing, to Kyle, I will the ability to not let girls take over your mind.

I, Amanda Roberts, will all my love and devotion to Megan, Wes, Whitney, Shai, and Chelsea. I wish each the best in their future. I will Megan the power to keep her grades up and keep her temper to a minimum. I leave to Misty that parking spot close to the door that we always took turns getting depending on who got to school first. To Amber, I want you to know that it is almost over and I will come back and visit. We always had some good times. To Andrea, Ashley, and Nataska, I just leave you the hassles and common sense to get out of this place. You know you love it here though. I want to thank Brina, Jana, and Jill for always having good laughs and all the fun little talks we have over lunch (plus all the cute little shirts borrowed). To my dad and Gayla, I will leave all my extra things at home that I won't be able to take off to college with me. Well, to everyone left in school, thanks for making my senior year great and I will always remember all of you.

Johana Williams Senior Will

First, I would like to thank God for having enough patience to get me this far.
To my parents: I leave my love and gratitude for putting up with me all these years. Without your love & guidance, there's no way I would have ever made it here. I've always known where to turn when the times got tough and I know you'll always be there for me.
To Melissa: I leave you the strength and willpower to get through high school. It's not always going to be easy, but I know if you apply yourself you can do it. Don't ever let anyone tell you you can't do it.
To Shav & Jack: I leave you two all the patience I can spare. Lord knows you're going to need it with all those rugrats. Just think, only about 15 more years or so and you'll can retire, if Shelly ever moves out. Good luck with that one.
To Shelly: My little kindergarten drop-out, I leave you the courage to face the inevitable...school. If you never start, you'll never finish. Trust me.
To Mitchell: I leave you the self-control that you don't seem to have. If you don't stop all those playground fights you need never gonna graduate, and believe me it takes long enough.
To Savannah: I leave you two very valuable possessions...concentration & a calculator. You're definitely gonna need them between the boys & Math.
To Aunt Frances: I'd like to give back some of the outspokenness (although sometimes others call it rudeness) you've given me over the years. You've always found more usefulness in it than I have anyway. Really though, thanks for always being there.
To Shelly: my surrogate sister. We've shared so much together & I know the future holds many surprises for us both, but through all of them I know we'll always have each other.
To All my Classmates & Friends I've Forgotten: Thanks for all the good times & the learned lessons from the bad. These are the memories we'll carry for the rest of our lives.
To Mrs. Juanita: Thanks for all those times you've tried so hard to get your point across. I know it couldn't have been easy. Just know that for every one who didn't listen, there's those of us who did.
Finally to my Brother, Bubba: Even though you couldn't be here in body, you've shared everything with me in my heart. Thank you for pushing me all these years to be everything you wanted me to be. I'll always miss you.

I Brodie will!

Kyle and Dominique my ability to keep their mouths shut.
To Cole, the ability to make good grades.
To Joshua, the ability to grow.
To Adam, the ability to go to the store and buy his own gum.
I will my gun to Rustin.
To Jeremy, the ability to have a good attitude.
I will Charles my job helping Mr. Larry.
To Mikey, the ability to finish a basketball season.
To Jared, Mark, and Damian to make good decisions.
I will to Joha, my ability to have a good time.
I would like to thank everybody for a great year!
BRODIE

I, Tasha Nicole Roberson, Will To The Juniors My Ability To Come To School And Be On Time; Well I Figured Ya'll Could Use It Because I Never Did. To Brina I Will What Patience I Have Left To Help You Through These Next Couple Years. You Know I'll Always Be There For You; I Just May Not Be Easy To Find. I Promise To Check In From Time To Time. To Misty I Leave My Sense Of Humor, So When People Make You Mad You'll Be Able To Laugh It Off. To Mikey I Leave My Stupidity, I Know You Don't Need Anyone More Than You've Got But I Need Someone To Put It To Good Use. To Everyone Else In The School I Leave Behind A Few Tips: You Can't Always Get Your Way But It Don't Hurt To Try. Buy Your Own Gum Because Brodie Is No Longer The Snapper, And Enjoy It While It Last. I Want To Thank All My Teachers Because Without You I Would Be The Genius I Am Today. To My Parents And Sisters Thanks For Helping Me Be Who I Am. Without Ya'll Love And Support I Don't Think I Would Have Been Able To Handle All My Obstacles. To The Lord Above Thanks For Your Guidance And The Strength You Gave Me.

I, Shelley Anne Trahan, do hereby will all my thanks and praise to God. Without him I know I wouldn't have made it this far. Mom, I love you so much. You gave up so much for your children. You've been our rock and you're the best mom anyone could ask for. To all my brothers and extended brothers, my ability to forgive and forget. You seem to love lecturing me on being gullible and oh so forgiving. Jeremy, all I'm giving you is $5 for gas and my sincere apologies for making you late for school because I was doing my hair. I give my ability to cook to Jake. Just remember, if you doubt the recipe to lemon squares, double the pan size. Brina and Katrina, to you I will my ability to go to the office and gripe when you don't like something. Brina especially to you, I give my ability to be stronger in the area of love. To a few of you juniors, you know who you are, thanks for being there for me when I needed you the most. Johana Michelle, I give my eternal friendship to you and thanks for being a sister I never had. I will the ability to not let people walk all over you to Brandon Charles. Just remember I still love you. Josh and Jonathan, my favorite little boys, to you I will the ability to walk away from a fight. You can't beat everyone up. I want Justice, Michael, and Miranda to have my love and thanks for being such sweet kids. Ms. Claudel and Mr. McNally, whether you want it or not, you have my eternal friendship. To my class, we've been through rough and easy times. Through it all we've been basically wanted to kill each other. No matter the bad things, I'll always love you guys.

Joseph James Laria
Born Aug. 3, 1975 Died July 17, 2000

They say memories are golden,
Well maybe that is true;
I never wanted memories,
I only wanted you.
A million times I needed you,
A million times I cried;
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life I loved you dearly,
In death I love you still;
In my heart you hold a piece,
No one could ever fill.
But now I know you want me,
To mourn for you no more;
To remember the happy times,
Life still has much in store.
Since you'll never be forgotten,
I pledge to you today:
A hollowed place within my heart,
Is where you'll always stay.
If tears could build a stairway,
And heartache make a lane;
I'd walk the path to heaven
And bring you back again.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same;
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.
We Love and Miss you Dearly J.J.

PARING Thoughts

Let an erasure remind you that everyone makes mistakes. It's OK!

Be thankful for all the chores your parents give. It means you have a home.

LIFE IS NOT FAIR. GET USED TO IT

If you mess up it's not your parents' fault, so don't whine about your mistakes, learn from them! **

The world will not care about your self-esteem. The world will expect you to accomplish something BEFORE you feel good about yourself. **

LET YOUR PENCIL REMIND YOU TO LIST YOUR BLESSINGS EVERYDAY!

Be THANKFUL For the clothes that fit too tight. It means you have enough to eat.

Life is not divided into 2 semesters. You don't get summers off and very few employers are interested in helping you "find yourself". Do that on your own time. **

Let your chewing gum remind you to stick with it, and you can accomplish anything!

YOUR SCHOOL MAY HAVE DONE AWAY WITH WINNERS AND LOSERS, BUT LIFE HAS NOT. IN SOME SCHOOLS THEY HAVE ABOLISHED FAILING GRADES AND THEY'LL GIVE YOU AS MANY TIMES AS YOU WANT TO GET THE RIGHT ANSWER. THIS DOESN'T BEAR THE SLIGHTEST RESEMBLANCE TO ANYTHING IN REAL LIFE. **

Do your best and then sleep in peace.

Be nice to nerds. Chances are you will end up working for one! **

That's all there is to say about 2001, Who will make a difference next year? Will you be the ONE?

Got To Stand For Something

Or You'll Fall
For Anything
