Johnson Bayou School

As the new year, as well as the new construction, began these words rang more true than ever. Each day was a new adventure.

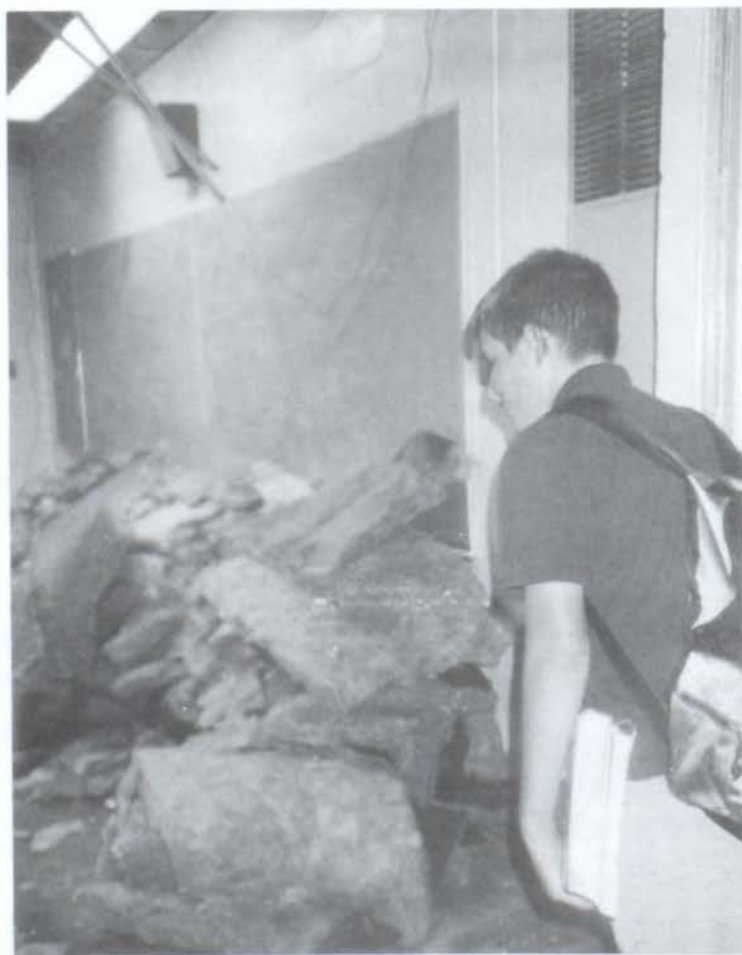

And the walls came tumblin' down ...

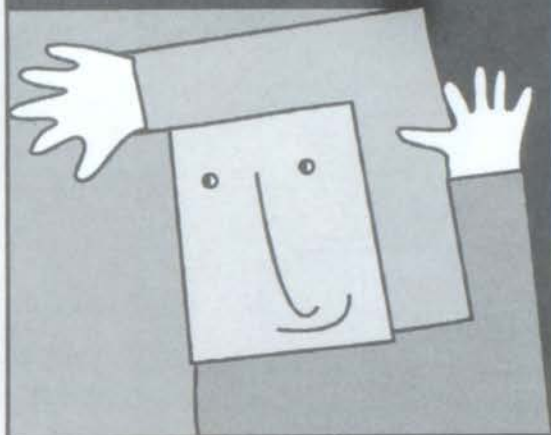

What have they done to my room?

Travis takes a look at his classroom one day after he had class in it. It was the beginning of a long year of musical rooms.

LOOKING BACK

Students take a moment to look back at the events that shaped 2002, but it's time to write the story for 2003!

GET
LEAD OUT!

Getting the lead out takes on many meanings when it comes to school. Whether you are writing a term paper, preparing for club competition, or practicing basketball, hard work is the key to all success.

Justin ties Wade's tie as they travel to the District FBLA competition.

Ashton takes notes.

The past school year was one of adventure. We got to pack up and move in the middle of the year. The students did a great job of adjusting to new surroundings and putting up with a lot of noise and changes in the daily routine. Having two second grade classes was different, also. I had never taught with another teacher on the same grade level before. The students did a fantastic job with everything they were asked to do. We had a lot of fun and learned a great deal at the same time.

The 2002-2003 year went by too fast! Before we knew it, we were dressing up for homecoming week and not long after we were opening Christmas gifts. Then we went on a field trip to Vermillion Ville, to learn about our heritage. Easter brought lots of goodies and games. Finally our last day of school came, and we said our good-byes to begin our well- deserved summer vacation.

The sixth grade is a group of very strong competitors for grades, in sports and for recognition. Scores on test and scores on the court were important to them. They received recognition for their good work in both areas.

They learned to accept the changes in the building and most of the noise became less noticeable as the year progressed. We look forward to seeing all the improvements completed.

The Best Home-room Class ever!!

This year's 8th grade class can best be described as a buffet-line of personality. We had as many as 16 kids in our homeroom class this year and as little as 14, but at no time did we have a lull moment of boredom. From Wade, Ashton, D.J., Blaine, Keith, and Shai's play by play of every single basketball game highlight worth talking about to Holly, Justine, and Shalyn sharing beauty secrets taken directly from this month's new stock at Bath and Body Works. Followed closely by Travia's wonderful stories about his girlfriend(s), proving the truth in his stories by finally bringing us pictures of the lucky lady. Beign complemented by Paige and Lacey's intensely private conversations always being interrupted by Michael's wonderful curiosity... there was never a quiet minute in this year's 8th grade homeroom...but we had fun, well, except for Cody who never said a word until I stood up to teach... and I would have had it no other way. We discussed everything from the new shoes being sold off of East Bay to why we were going to war, again. We had brilliant conversations about respect, hardwork, and life outside of Johnson Bayou. They asked question after question after question, to which I wasn't the only one in the classroom that had answers. Sometimes I wondered why they needed me in the discussions at all, I think they just wanted to see if they agreed with my opinions...and oddly enough we saw eye to eye a lot. Every morning was a brand new challenge for me as a teacher. We had so many new faces come and go through out the year. Paige, Andrew, Destiny all of which either brought their own philosophies or walked away with a part of our hearts. I never thought I would leave this school year having learned so much about life from the eye of a 14 year old. I thank God for the opportunity to be 14 again.

Sixteen girls and three guys! What an experience. I could use Katrina's, Kayla, Crystan, and Laura's papers as test keys. Lacci (teacher's aide) would always help me. Kayla, Crystan, Sunny, and Sabrina (homeroom count queen), kept me abreast of the latest gossip. Cheyenne would get disgusted with me and clean up my clutter and try to keep me neat. "KK" was a lovable ambulatory medical excuse while the other absence leader Alexis, tried her best to ignore me all year. Sarah hated my worksheets; it interfered with her and Dani, and Melissa's "Big Mouth" conversations. Melissa's favorite movie was "Anger Management". Right Adam? Gene and Drew were the champions of, "Mr. Miller, I don't feel good. May I sleep?" Claire and Natasha shared duties with Lacci, and kept the room and boards and me somewhat organized. Remember your promise to me Natasha! They were and are a truly vibrant, intelligent and unique group who touched my heart with a thousand kindnesses and exacerbated me only rarely.

This has been a blossoming year for the sophomores! The expressive personalities and strong wills have been fun yet challenging at times, however I would not change them for anything. There are no followers in the class of 2005 and that makes them unique! In a society where peer pressure and wrong choices can alter your life completely, it is my prayer that you will keep your strong wills and use them to stand up for what is right. You will have very bright futures a head of you, but like you have heard me say before, "it is all about choices."

Your senior year consists of getting out of school early, 1st to eat lunch, and No Science Fair or Social Studies Projects to do. But now....as you go to college or get a job you'll find yourself saying, "Oh, high school was so easy, I wish it was still that easy. As you get further in your college education or your career, you will see that the "hard stuff" gets easier. And then, when you finish college or change jobs, it will start all over once again. The thing to remember is...do whatever you do (college or career) with all of your heart. And.... you will conquer those hard things. In the end, it is YOU that remains standing strong and proud just as you did on May 23, 2003, Your Graduation Day!

Best of Luck, MS BRIDGET

Beta Club is a national academic honor society for high school students emphasizing four areas: leadership, service, achievement, and character. It reflects the high academic achievement of a grade point average of 3.0 or higher. The purpose of the Beta club is to promote the ideals of character, to reward meritorious achievement and to encourage and assist students in continuing their education after high school. This year's Beta Club members were an enthused and motivated bunch. They raised over $1,200 through various fundraisers which sent them to the District Rally in October and to Baton Rouge for the State Rally in December.

JUNIOR PROPHECY

What Do We See
For The Class of 2003

Having transferred to Yale University Justin "Party Animal" Trahan, sets off to college to achieve a degree in commercial arts. Being the party animal that he has become, he tends to stray away from studying and becomes the all around popular guy on campus while hosting all the study groups and parties. Graduating college, furthering his education and becoming famous for infomercials still have not stopped him. Being the computer brainiac that he is, Justin invents the new and improved cartoon animated computers with faster internet connection with digital round sound. Justin, all this fortune may not happen but, hey, we can always dream.

Bria "I can't wait to move away from here" Trahan -> picture this. Bria living the picture perfect life-style after graduating Sewells and becoming a world-class photographer. When not travelling around the world, I mean bayou, capturing pictures of all sorts of wildlife, she is at home with her GIGANTIC family. Bria lets us know that pictures mean a thousand babies, I mean words.

Determined to pay back old debts, Kyle "I'll pay you back later" Bados, starts his own loan service with the slogan, "When you're bad, call Bad-on". After making the money to pay back all the money he "borrowed" from people in high school, he fails to pay taxes on his business. The IRS seizes his business, kicking him out onto the street, leaving him broke. After searching the world through and through to get paid back credit, Kyle ends up moving back to sweet home Johnson Bayou. But don't worry Kyle, you can still borrow the money from us.

Jill "Can I borrow your homework" Simon, graduates and moves on to college. During college she is still lending out her homework to the people who need a helping hand. Jill shows us that she's not so "diligent" after all and starts a business in Homecleaning, tutoring, and teaching kids that being a little too generous with your homework is not always necessary. It's okay Jill, generosity is not always such a bad thing.

We see Dominique "Oh wait, did Cherysae say it was okay" Sandifer living his dream of marrying Cherysae and becoming the new and improved model of a housewife. Instead of the occasional partying while Cherysae is out of town, cooking, cleaning, and playing the role of the perfect dad to "Little Dominique" now dominates all his quiet time. He does find time to hang with the guys occasionally, but of course, with Cherysae's permission.

Adam "Livin' for the weekend" Young, parties his way right through graduation night, only to realize he has partied his way through life. Now at 30, he has nothing but himself and his little road Chevy. Making a complete turnaround, he has decided to pick up life and take a great grasp while he can. Becoming a lead back up dancer and choreographer for Brittnay Spears...Drop it like it's hot, Adam. You the Man!!!

We see John "Where'd you get this tan?" Snyder, sick of his transparent skin, goes to college, gets a degree in chemistry and develops a new high-intensity tanning lotion, Sun Lotion #9. The new product gives almost instant tan, making it a worldwide craze. It also never fades away, making it really expensive and John very rich. We all wish we had your tan, John!

Joekus "I'll be in Sulpher" Harvestine heads straight for the Pro-Rodeo circuit. Making lots of money and riding all those bulls sure tires him out but not comparing to being the newest mayor of Sulpher. Being the first bull-riding mayor makes him quite famous. He spends his days hanging out with Tuff Hedeman and teaching his youngsters to follow in his footsteps. We know you'll make it big in the short go.

Jana "Dodge that Ditch" Billot after consecutive 5-car pileups, head-on collisions, fender benders, and millions of dollars in property damage finding herself in the Cameron Parish Courthouse. She has been sentenced to life behind bars in the "big house". While in prison she does pursue her dream in culinary arts but she also becomes the jail's head cook. Jana, this is all just a joke...There is nothing but success in your future.

We foresee Juanita "Let me ask my parents" Cox still living at home in Holly Beach with her own mechanic shop in front of T & T's. Not only is it a mechanic shop, it also serves Popeye's to waiting customers. Serving chicken and working on cars occupies most of her time. Needless to say, her favorite game is still "Mother May I". It's okay Juanita, we all ask our parents from time to time.

During the course of life, Brandon "Squars" Trahan pursues a variety of careers after graduation. Showing everyone he is so square, among his jobs he is the CEO of box tops for education, manufacturer and distributor rubber's cubes everywhere, and avidly rebels against all use of box cutters. For all that you accomplished, Brandon, you truly are a well-rounded person.

We see Cole "Hey dude - What's up Bruh" Sandifer, graduating and immediately heading to the navy. While gone he is shipped away to fight for our country. Not only did we win the war because he is the strongest man in the world, but he introduced all those foreigners to the great American slang, "Dude and Bruh".

To the Class of 2003:
We have all grown close to you over the years. We hate to say goodbye, but there comes a time when you have to. We all hope that you make the best of yourselves in the future. We will miss everyone of you in our own special way...

T. Brandon Truhon would like to first of all thank everyone who has been there for me through out the years especially my mom and dad. Without them I do not know what I would have done. To my little brother Michael I leave my ability to finish school no matter how hard you do not want to at times. To Justine and Miranda I leave my ability to get up late for school and still get ready on time. Don't give me the ability to leave my girlfriend's house every once in a while and have a little fun. To the rest of my fellow classmates and friends I leave all the good times we had both in and out of school. I will never forget you!

L. James would like to thank my family and friends for the support and love they have given me. I will miss the days of being a student and the memories of the people I met along the way. I will miss the days of being a student and the memories of the people I met along the way.

We, Adam Young and Joshua Barentine, decided that leaving a will was just too much trouble. Besides if Mr. Santifer would ever give us a break in class maybe we would have time to write one. But there are perhaps a few things we could think of, that is, if we chose to write them. Like I, Adam, would probably wish my fishing skills to Mark, since he seems to spend a lot of time (during school) at home. And I, Joshua, might wish my riding skills and a good dental policy to Rustin so perhaps he could give ride along another try. Of course, that is if he has finished paying off his last ride. But after thinking about it we, Adam and Joshua, think we might hold on a little while longer to our precious abilities just in case we might need them. But if anyone out there needs a little help from a friend, don't hesitate to call.

L. James would like to thank my family and friends for the support and love they have given me. I will miss the days of being a student and the memories of the people I met along the way. I will miss the days of being a student and the memories of the people I met along the way.

Coach Trahan

As we look back at our high school years -

There are decisions we wish we could change.
Yet, memories we hold so dear.

The ongoing practices, drills, sprints, and suicides.
Through happy times & sad times - you were always by our side.
The basketball games and track meets - when we came out on top.
The ones that came so close - that we missed by one point or one shot.

These are some of the memories - that will always remain.

But, the DEDICATION & RESPECT you taught us were our greatest gain.

We know there will always be

Teachers, Coaches, and Friends.

But, it's not what you are - It's what you put in it

That will always prevail in the end.

You've touched a lot of lives, as you can see.

And this is because you've taught us to be the best that we can be.

Although some have moved away and yes - some of us are still here.

No matter where our life leads us

We hold our athletic school memories dear.

So, as you retire from JBHS

Remember the first 25 years of your career.

The DEDICATION & RESPECT that we learned from you are what we are trying to carry on now & in the future years.

You deserve the best, so hold your head up high.

We wish you Success, Happiness, and Joy and Lots of Love as you retire.

From
