A HOMECOMING To REMEMBER

It was a first at JBHS, a Homecoming Parade in the grandest form. The students had their usual crazy days but this year a parade was added. Local industries joined in the celebration along with the Fire Department. Residents lined the road from the school to the rec center. The pep rally was also a hit along with the Homecoming dance sponsored by the Student Council. It was a FANtastic week !

I, Harmony, would first like to thank God for everything He has provided for me. For giving me a wonderful, loving family and allowing me to grow up in such a great place like Johnson Bayou. Mom and Dad, you've always been there for me and raised me to love God with all my heart; you've taught me right from wrong. I wouldn't be the person I am today without you. Thank you for everything you've done for me these past 18 years. I know I can count on you for anything. Kris, what can I say, you're the best younger brother I could ever ask for. Thanks for all the laughs and crazy times. You, Kyauhna, Lena, and I have some funny memories together. To all my crazy younger cousins, Tristan, Hunter, Linzi, Garrett, Riley, and Kortni, I will you the ability to study hard, but also enjoy your years in school. And yes Tristan, I realize that you're so much taller than me now, no need to keep pointing it out. To the class of 2013, thanks for giving us a great senior prom and enjoy your last year of high school. To my fellow seniors, we finally made it. We've been through so much together, good and bad. Thank you all for being such great friends throughout the years. I'm really going to miss seeing all of you pretty much every day. I wish you all the best in whatever you choose to do. Finally, thank you to all of the students, teachers, staff, and everyone else who made my senior year the best it could be.

I, Alexis, thank God for giving me the strength to get this far in my journey. My parents, I am truly blessed to have you both as parents. Nanny, for always being there whenever I needed you. I leave Colton, the ability not to get so mad so easily, ignore all the drama and the people who create it. Daria, it's now time for you to step up and be the leader. You are an awesome ball player and I know that you'll do whatever it takes to get to the top, which is why I have decided to will you my jersey. I hope you cherish it as much as I did. Just remember, I will always look better in it! Haha. Michael, thanks for always being there, you're the greatest. I love you. Bryan, thanks for always joking and keeping me laughing, school would a been boring without you, bro. Keylee, I will you my self-confidence. You can conquer anything if you just put your mind to it. Wyatt, you've come a long way in basketball, keep working hard & you might just surprise yourself. Ian, thanks for all the hugs, they always made my day! Kasa, you may be the smallest girl on the team, but you have one of the biggest hearts for the game. Just keep giving it 110%. Richard, Camren, and Blake thanks for always keeping me on my toes. Amy - You've impressed me, keep your head up and ignore the negative comments. Uncle Larry, thanks for being the best bus driver and letting me pick where to eat on occasion. To the class of 2012, thanks for the memorable years and all the laughs; I wish you the best of luck to whatever you choose to do. & to the class of 2013, make the best of it, because it sure does fly by!!

I, Khranna, would like to thank God for everything He has given me. I would also like to thank my parents for always being there and dealing with me, even when I was a pain. It may not seem like it, but I appreciate it. Kia, thanks for all the sisterly talks. Kasa, even though we may fight and argue all the time, I still love you and wouldn't trade you for anything. I would like to will Kendal, my ability to stay quiet when necessary. Mr. Troy and Mrs. Heather, thanks for being like a second family to me. To the class of 2012, thanks for all the crazy and fun memories. And to the class of 2013, make as many memories as possible, it goes by fast!!

I, Victoria, want to thank my family for being there, even though I got on your nerves, at least we all made it out alive. Granny & Paw Thank You and I Love You.
