DEDICATION OF YEARBOOK

In keeping with the heartfelt wishes of the Senior Class of 1960, we, the staff, dedicate this yearbook to Betty Sedlock. As a classmate, we remember her for her winning smile and her shining personality. Her influence among fellow students exemplified an ideal to which many may aspire. Those of us who knew her feel void in our lives since her passing.

We strive forward toward attaining the privilege of joining her in that Home where there is known no sorrow, grief, or death.

THE PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

U.W. Dickerson, Principal

This book contains a small part of your life history and portrays some of the events and activities that you have participated in during your school days. In the future, these pages will help you recall friends and events that were very near and dear to you.

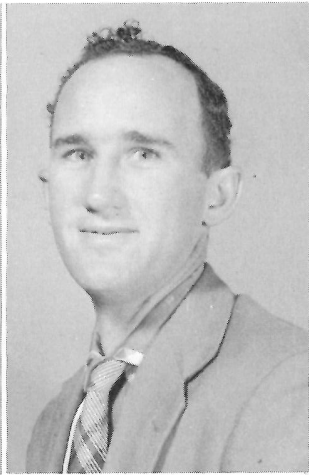

Your generation will be the most highly trained group of American citizens in this country's history. The society in which you live will demand more of you than has been demanded of any previous generation known. You must possess the initiative, knowledge, skill and intelligence to live and successfully compete with others in a highly technical society. Your success or failure in future aims will depend upon your initiative, knowledge, skill, and intelligence.

CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1960, in sound mind and healthy physique, do make this our last will and testament. Each article here described is bequeathed severally to the below mentioned individuals according to the terms of this will and testament.

We hereby declare all previous promises to pay, wills or testaments made by this class as null and void.

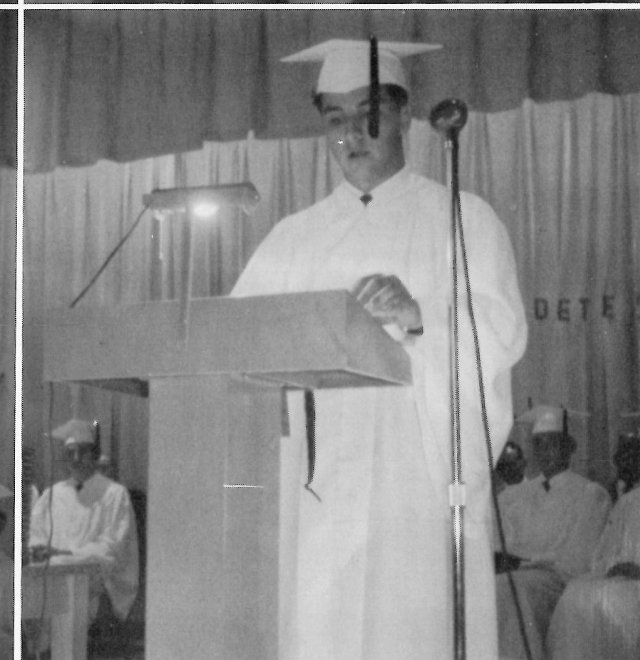

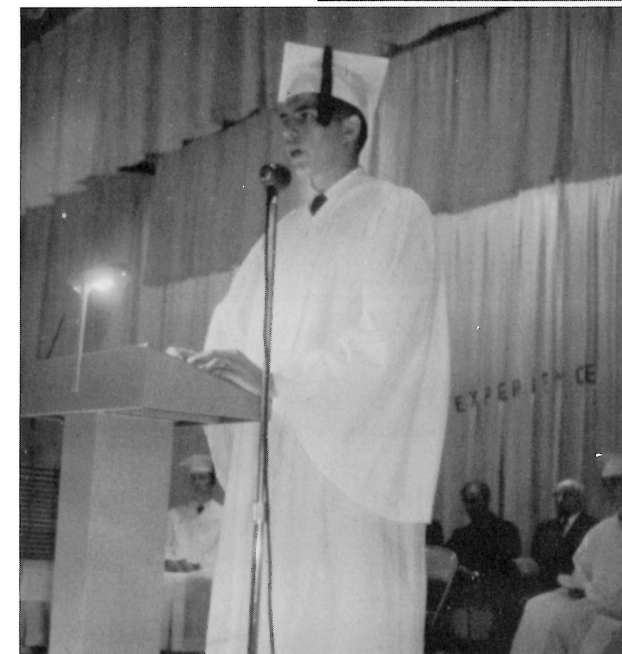

We hereby appoint as sole administrator of this will, our principal, to administer this will and testament as he sees best.

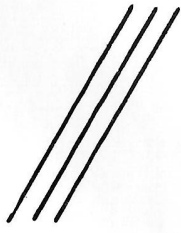

- I, Cooper Billings, do bequeath my ballroom dancing ability to Ruben.
- I, Thomas Bonsall, do bequeath my ability to understand Mr. Smith's questions to Wayne Gross.
- I, Ray Burliegh, bequeath my secret passion for Marilyn Monroe to James Watts.
- I, Gerald Conner, will my ability as a speaker to Edward Richard.
- I, Warner Daigle, do bequeath my suave, masculine charm to Pep LeBlanc.
- I, Gerald Daigle, will all my excuse blanks and absent privileges to Charles LeBeouf.
- I, Leroy Dyson, bequeath all slightly used gum under the second seat of the third row in room 15 to my successor in American History.
- I, J. C. Gallier, bequeath my ability to give the wrong answers in history to Wendell Murphy.
- We, Avita LaBove, and Gerald Conner, do will our cafeteria romance to the Romantic Age.
- We, Jackie Miller, and John Watts, do bequeath our favorite seats in Room 13 to any eleventh grade couple.
- I, John Miller, leave my membership in the Bachelors' Club to Ernest Daigle.
- I, J. D. Miller, do bequeath my ability to go to sophomore parties to Melvin Boudreaux.
- I, Lucille Miller, do bequeath my girlish figure to Coral Lee Crain.
- I, Frank Pickett, leave my ability to flirt to Roger Richard.
