Gwen Roberts now operates Broussard's Dairy on Pecan Island. Tamara LaLande has also found success on the island. As Gwen's sister-in-law she's also become her assistant.

Henrietta Richard has made it to Hollywood with her husband's help. Dating Ronnie Elam sure did pay off for her.

ADVERTISEMENTS

This Is Where and How We Find the Class of '69 at a Class Reunion!

Bobby Vincent is now owner and operator of the only Chinese restaurant in Cameron. It is located on Dupont Avenue, right across from Pop's.

Pop's is owned by Edward Petersen now. As a sideline he has a partnership in the Salem Company. His life long partner is Coach Vidrine.

One member of our class has gone into law. Tommy Theriot is now affiliated with Jones, Jones, & Theriot.

Gary Dimas went back to the seminary after graduation. He is now pastor of Holy Cypress Inn.

Grand Chenier Cafe has a new owner, Leland Richard. He is now in the process of renaming it. The new name will be Guidry & Richard.

Charlotte Brasseaux is now employed at the Grand Chenier Cafe. There she can keep an eye on their most frequent customer, Phillip Trosclair. Phillip's still trying to make her quit so she can go back to peeling shrimp at the canning factory and raising their twelve kids.

Howard Dupuie has changed the famous "Dear Abby" column to "Dear Howie." He specializes in giving advice to people with broken hearts. He certainly has had enough experience.

Linda Canik has found fortune as an international peace negotiator.

Bonnie Conner has followed in her idol's footsteps. She is now principal of our old Alma Mater.

Also employed at South Cameron is Linda Dronet. She is the Home Economics teacher.

For the first time in its history South Cameron's boy's basketball team has a female coach, Phyllis Savoie.

Sherry Murphy, alias the "Night Owl" now works the night shift at T-Jack's. As head waitress she does extremely well in collecting tips.

Paula Dupont now has her own television show. She's the lawyer in the daily program Divorce Court. (Wishful thinking, huh, Paula?)

Chief pilot at Cameron's new airport is Johnny Fredrick. If you happen to glance into the sky about 6:00 P.M. every afternoon, you will see he and Evangeline Morales taking their daily ride.

Mary Woodgett, always very interested in the Army, has now become Secretary of War.

Shakey's Pizza House operated by Mona Sue and Carolyn Miller seems to be doing great. They specialize in making 16" sausage pizzas for their most often customer, Philip Dardeau.

Upon graduation Robert Broussard went into the seafood business. He is half owner of the shrimp factory, Griffin and Son.

We find Pam Burleigh in the hospital due to a tracheotomy. This was needed when she swallowed Paul's teeth.

Paul LaBove is now committed to the Cameron Fire Department, due to a false alarm.

Mona Authement has gone into partnership with Eva Mae Lane as the new producers of the cartoon series, "George of the Jungle."

Everyday now we see Glenda Gaspard sitting on the dock in Patterson singing, "Shrimp Boats Are Coming!"

Carlton Styron is reported serving time in Angola for causing a severe epidemic of the 7-yr. itch.

Robert Dale Richard is now playing for Lawrence Welk. You may see him every Saturday night on Channel 6.

Arthur Lee inherited all of Dr. M. O. Martin's land and money and is living in New Orleans on Bourbon Street.

Jordan's Service Station, operated by Tommy and Anita is reported doing great. Their biggest income is from motorcycle repairing.

The artist of our class, Clay Boudreaux, has repeatedly been mistaken for Michelangelo. You can see his art displays any time you're in Paris.

Jerry LeMaster is now caged up in the Rockefeller Refuge. He was mistaken for a brown pelican with a broken wing as he was coming out of Pop's one night.

Gary Baccigalopi is now a professional wrestler, but there's just one problem, he has yet to win a match.

Thaunia Savoie, more commonly known as Thunder, lived up to her name by opening a weather station. Her only helper, by the way, is named appropriately, "Lightning."

Rhonda Ratcliff is now the leader of the Lonely Hearts Club, still longing for her true love, Harold Domingue.

Most of us see Linda Nunez, or more commonly known as T. Gail, every morning as she passes by in that old familiar Vermillion milk truck.

I, Linda Canik, will my number "30" basketball uniform to Kathy Landry with hopes she will get to use it next year.

I, Tamara LaLande, will a year's paid dancing lesson at the Fred Astaire Studio to Celeste Hopper in hopes it will help her out in many ways.

I, Paula Dupont, will to Mr. D. P. Broussard a bottle of Excedrin, in hopes it will cure all the headaches that I've given him in the past.

I, Robert Broussard, will to Dave Savoie, Georgia Authement, and to Evans LaBove, I will Valerie Jenkins. Best of Luck to both of you!

I, Gwen Roberts, hereby will to Coach Thomas and Mr. Broussard the secret of why my nickname is "Jersey." You'll find it in the card catalogue under "T."

I, Phillip Trosclair, will all my ace bandages, neck braces, crutches, and used tape to Michael Styron so that this might help him through football next year.

I, Mary Woodgett, will to Leta Portie my mini-skirt which she's talked so much about. But looking back I doubt if she needs it; hers always were shorter than mine anyway.

I, Glenda Gaspard, do solemnly will my shape to Roxanne Kershaw in hopes she will get the boy of her dreams. Good luck in getting David; you'll need it.

I, Linda Dronet, will my happy-go-lucky feeling to Edward Oglesby. He will need it when Sheila Boudreaux hooks him.

I, Tommy Theriot, will to Edward Oglesby my broken heart, but I see that he doesn't really need it because his is in the same condition as mine. May mine be mended faster than his.

I, Tommy Jordan, will my ability to play the drums well to Anita Roy. Ingredients are: a twelve-year itch and one pair of drumsticks.

I, Sherry Murphy, will Mr. Vines a set of air brakes in hopes he will slow down in our remaining half of the year.

I, Philip Dardeau, will my ability to work Bookkeeping problems to Suetta Jones. I know she'll need it!

I, Thauria Savoie, will to Mrs. Doland a year's worth of headaches, because she hardly ever gets them.

I, Paul LaBove, will all my charm to Poochie Clement and Linda Nunez, in hopes it will help them at their wedding which will take place between Roy's Chicken Yard and Gayle's Coke Bottle Shop.

I, Charlotte Brasseaux, will to the next F.H.A. president all my patience, ability to remain cool and calm during a meeting and my nerves of steel. In case that isn't enough I leave my can of Secret so that she may at least stay dry even though she may lose her cool, and my bottle of nerve pills because those nerves aren't really made of steel. Good Luck!

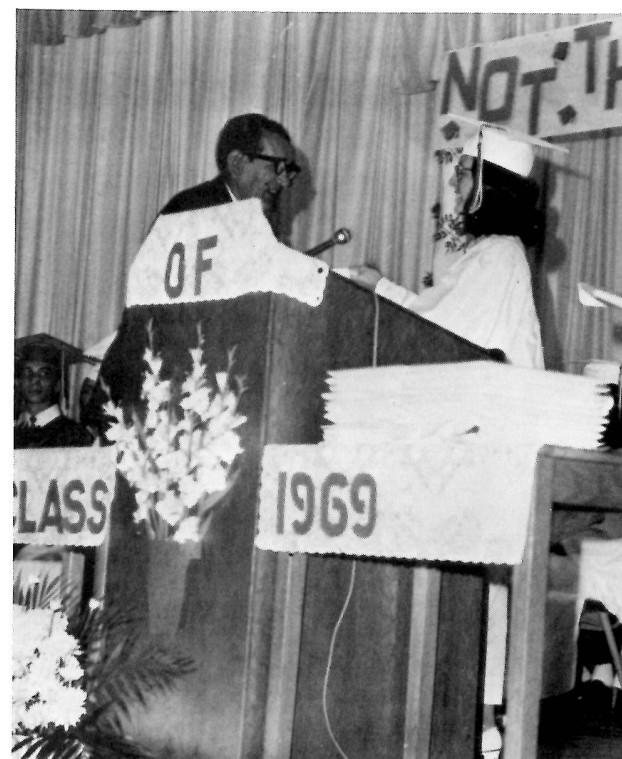

I, Phyllis Savoie, will to Margaret Savoie, my ability to play basketball because she has always wanted to follow in my footsteps. So if you think you can fill my shoes you can have them, Margaret.

I, Bobby Vincent, will to Mrs. Doland a gold-initialed, hand-engraved handkerchief to wipe away the tears of sorrow she'll shed when I'm gone.

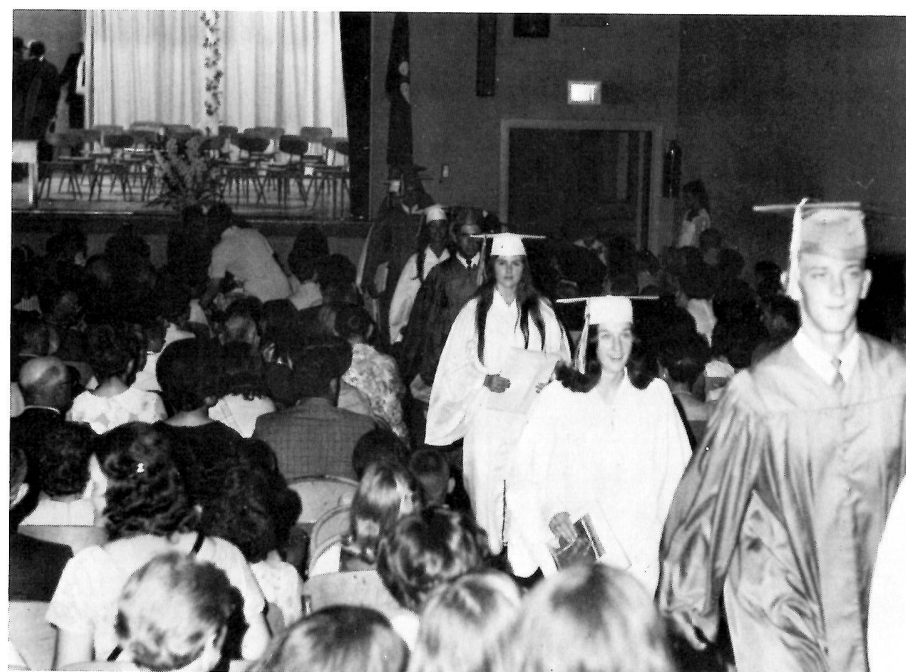

I, Mona Authement, will to Darlene Creppel my big mouth, only under the condition that she make as much use of it as I did. And to Shelly Schwark I will all my freckles. Do you think you can squeeze them in, Shelly?

Superintendent Montie delivered his speech to the 1969 graduating class.

The handing out of diplomas was the really big moment!

"Farewell"

Senior Wills

I, Jerry LeMasters, will everybody a happy hangover in the morning.

I, Gary Dimas, will my holy habits and my ability to stay away from liquor to Chuck Styron, alias Marty and Liz Woodgett, alias Jackie.

I, Eva Lane, do solemnly will to Jamie McCall my gorgeous figure, and to Pam Griffin I will my ability to cheat in class and get caught.

I, Rhonda Ratcliff, do solemnly will to Sue Conner, my shyness, ability to be small and my shrinking pills.

I, Edward Petersen, will to Mr. Donald Broussard my naturally curly hair since his is so straight. Maybe this will cut down his bill at Midway Beauty Salon.

I, Bonnie Conner, will Betty Crocker's latest edition "1001 Ways to Prepare Leftovers" to the gourmet chefs of South Cameron High School. They can probably add a few recipes of their own.

I, Mona Sue Miller, will to the future pep squad leaders all the friendliness, cooperation and understanding that was always expressed among the members.

I, Henrietta "Mickey" Richard, will to Margaret Savoie my odd sense of humor. May she always get a laugh out of Floyd Coppel's corny jokes!

I, Johnnie Frederick, will my twelve years of headaches to Mrs. Doland so she can find a cure for hers, because mine are gone.

I, Clay Boudreaux, leave to Lynn Richard South Cameron High School. Have a Blast, Lynn!

I, Leland "Mano" Richard, will to my good buddy Walter Wainwright a First Aid Kit, because he will soon need it!

I, Pam Burleigh, will all my chicken jokes to my sister, Gayle, hoping that she may be able to cackle up a few of her own.

I, Arthur Lee Booth, will nothing because there is nothing worth leaving to this school!

I, Carlton Styron, will all my abilities to cheat, steal and lie to "Honest Abe," Jimmy Howard.

I, Howard Dupuie, will all my love and affection for Diane Richard to Kyle Howard.

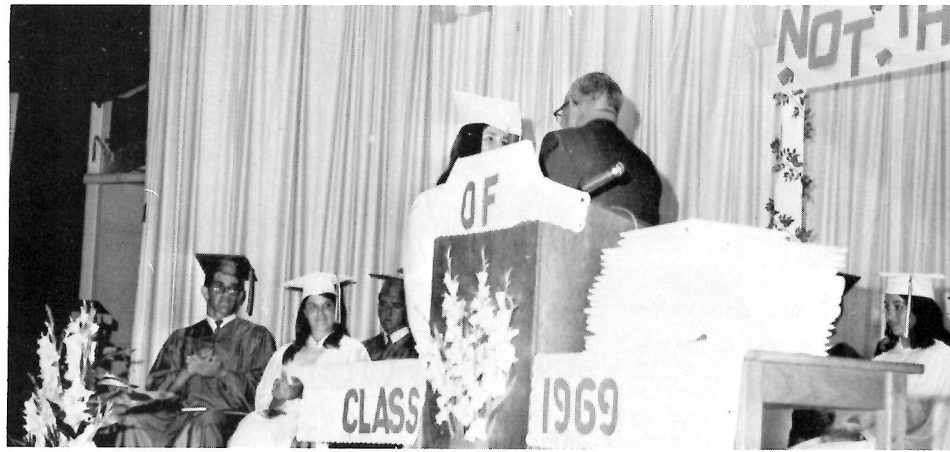

I, Linda "T Gail" Nunez, will all my cheat sheets to Sue Conner, all my skill and training to Sheila Boudreaux so she can trap Edward Oglesby, and to my sister Ruth Ann, I will all my charms to get a boy but lose him before I know it.

Pamela Burleigh received the Woodm. of the World Award

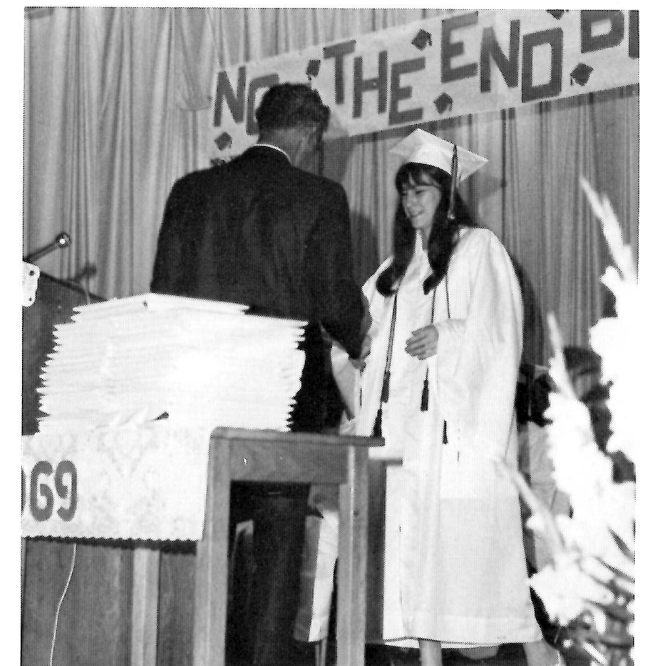

Paula Dupont and Phillip Dardeau were awarded the American Legion Honor.

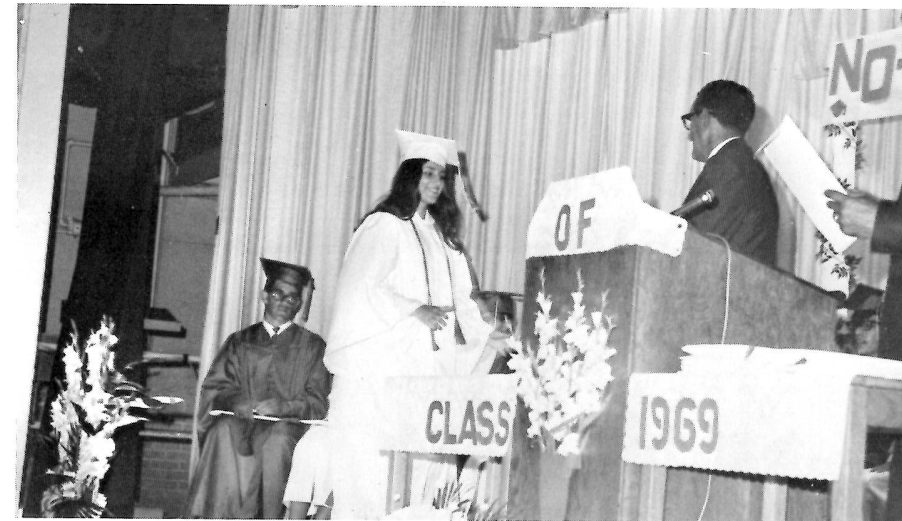

Mona Sue Miller was honored the Lion's Club Award.

Paula Dupont received DAR Award.

Pam Burleigh received McNeese Scholarship.

Mona Sue Miller was also awarded a Mc-Neese scholarship.

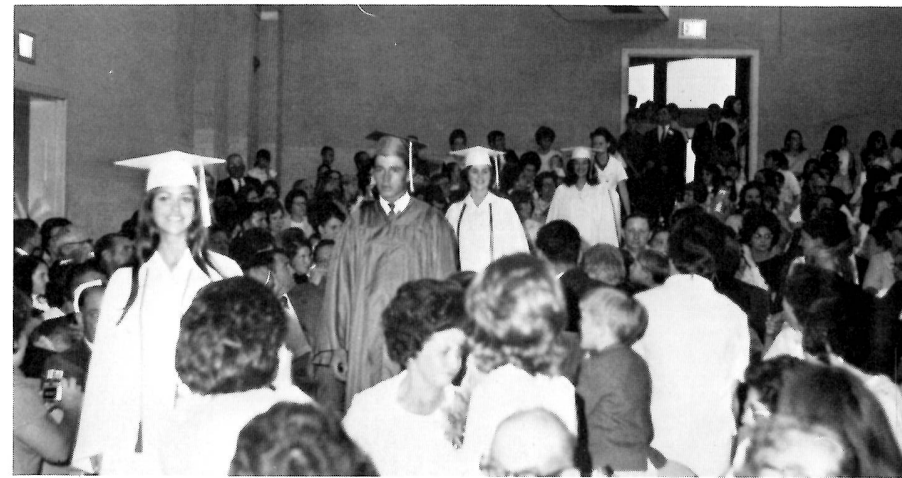

Mary Woodgett received the W. T. and Ethel Burton Scholarship.

Principal

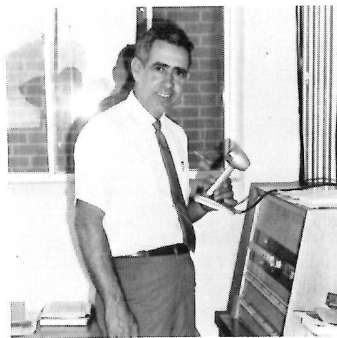

J. C. REINA

As you review the events and the moments of the past year, your thoughts may be sober, tender or on the humorous side. The familiar faces of friends and school life will have its sentimental value for you.

To you who are graduating, I wish you success in your hopes and aspirations.

To you who will still be a part of South Cameron High School, I hope your future will be both pleasant and profitable.

As your principal, may I extend to each student, teacher, and staff member my sincere thanks for an outstanding school year.

At last, the big moment is here! "Go Big Seniors '69!"

Highlights

"That's a no' no', Paula. But it is tempting, isn't it?"

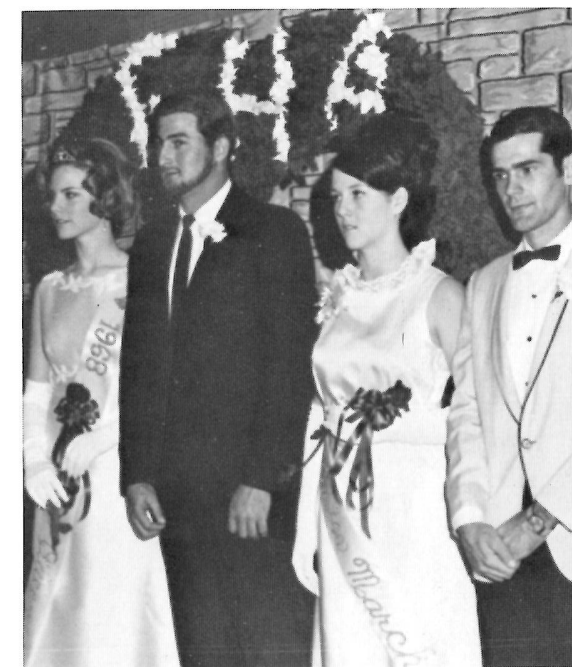

Happiness is ...
"being a Senior!"

of the Year

A night to remember!

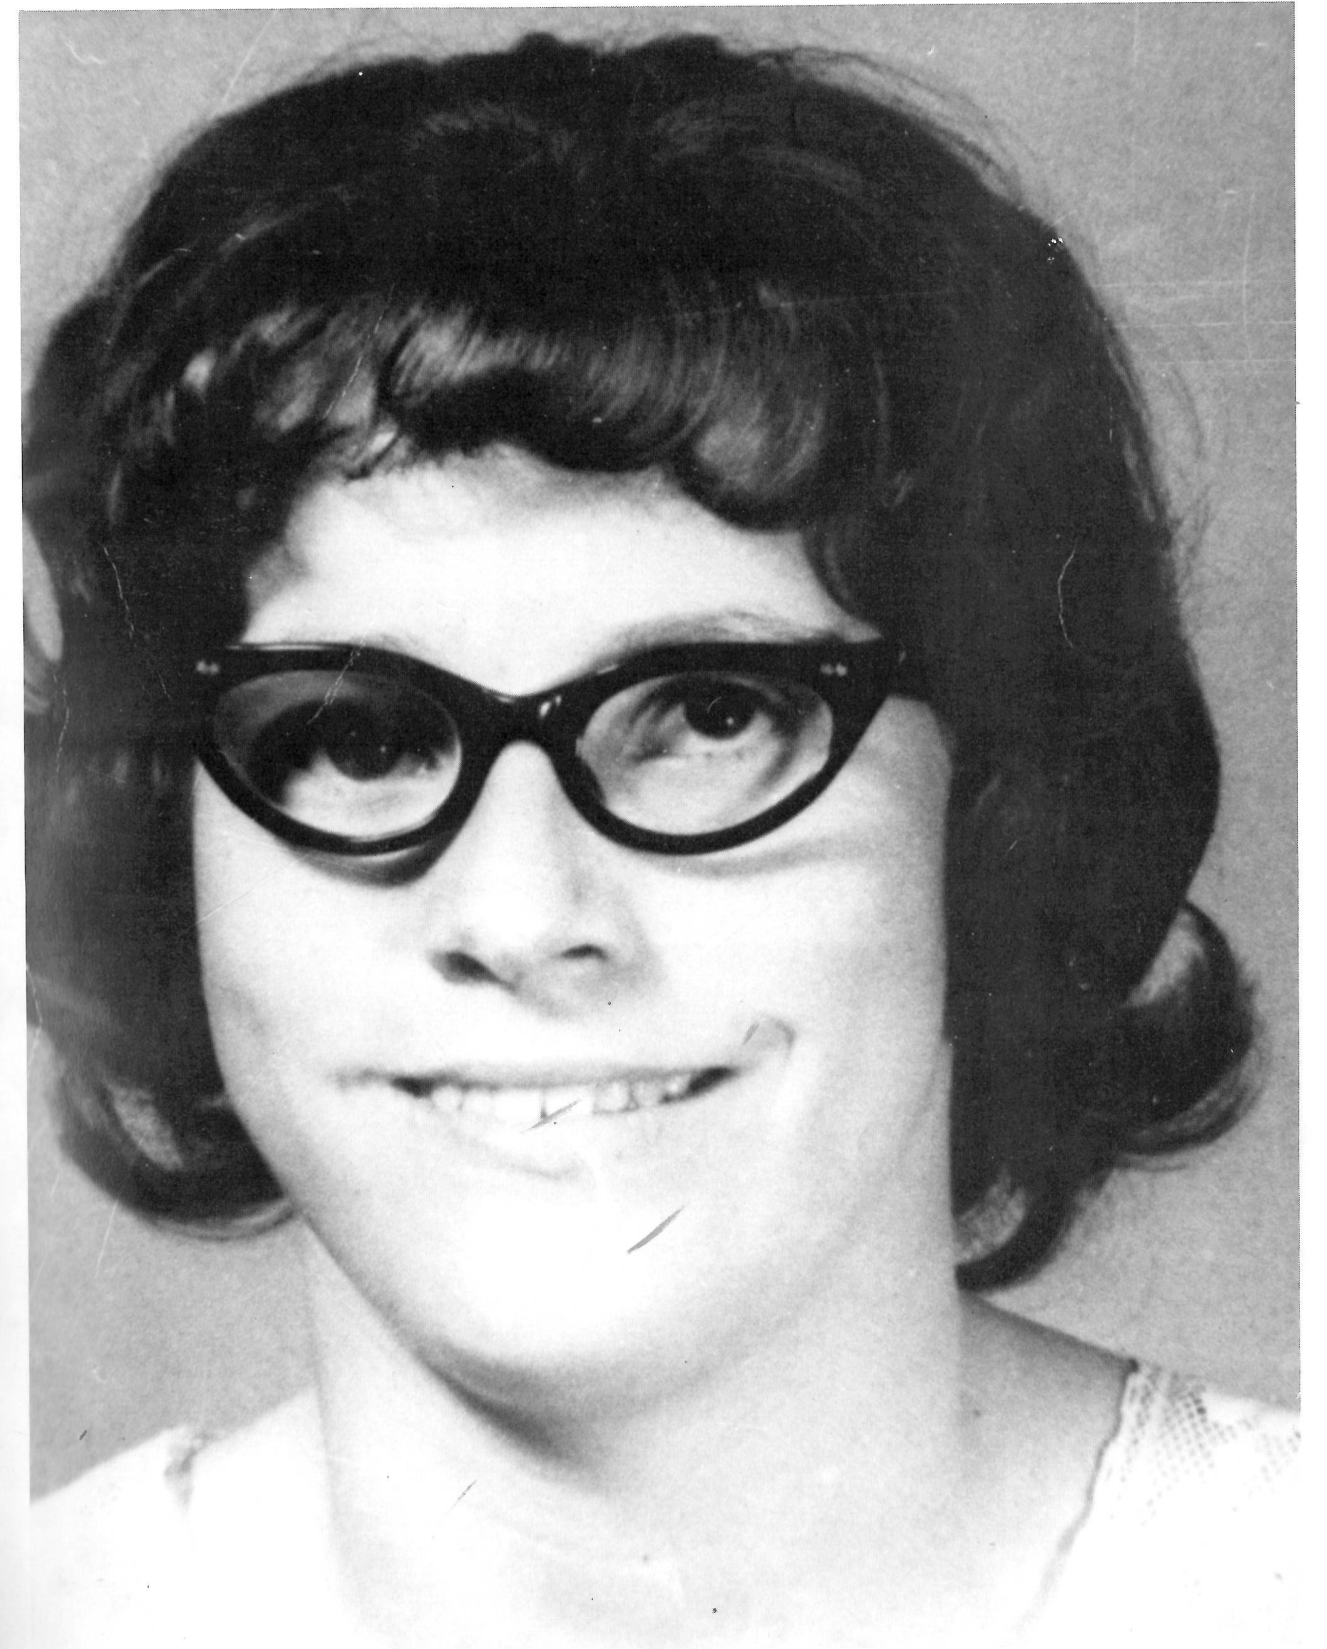

The F. H. A. Sweetheart Court at its best!

NOT THE END BUT THE BEGINNING!

Dedication

When we, the Tarpon Staff of South Cameron High School began our voyage upon the Sea of Knowledge, little did we realize how greatly our lives would be affected by the ship's crew. Our lives and opinions have been tremendously influenced by those teachers who gave us our start in elementary school. To show our gratitude for the many times they have helped us over the waves, have inspired, and have led us, we the Tarpon Staff, wish to dedicate this 1969 edition of the Tarpon to the Elementary School Faculty. We hope your years in your new school will be as pleasant and as profitable as the ones you have spent here have been. We shall miss you all.
