Monique,
If you should go before me, dear, walk slowly down the ways of death, well- worn and wide, for I would want to overtake you quickly and seek the journeys ending by your side.
I would be so forlorn not to descry you down some shining highroad when I came; Walk slowly, dear, and often look behind you and pause to hear if someone calls your name.

ROCK

Now that the Big Day has come, we ask how did it get here so fast? You have made us so Proud of you and everything you have accomplished, weather it was in the classroom on the football field, or in a rodeo arena. You always did your best and never quite. We know you have many goals that you want to fulfill. We hope we have prepared you to face the ups and downs of everyday life. We will always be here for you, thanks for the memories, in the past and we are looking forward for many more to come.

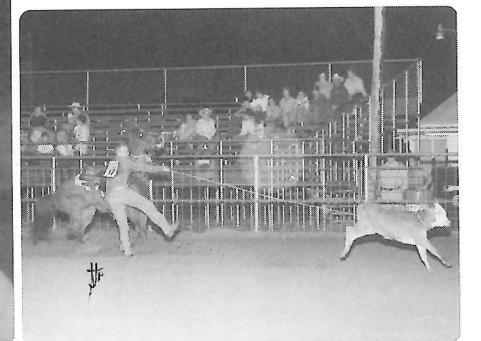

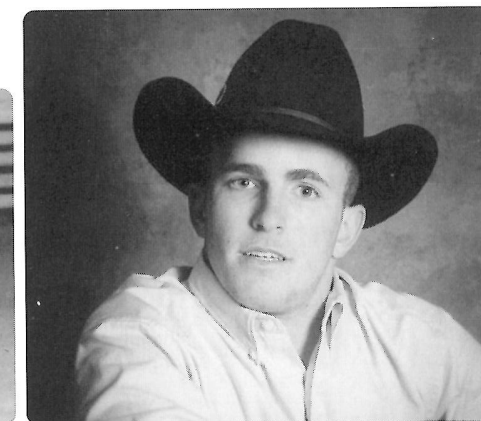

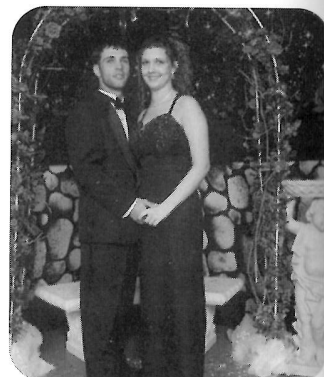

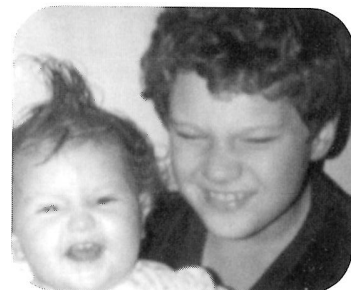

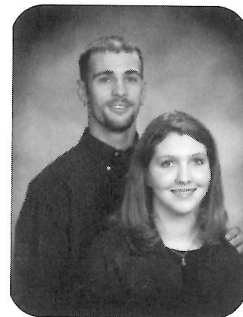

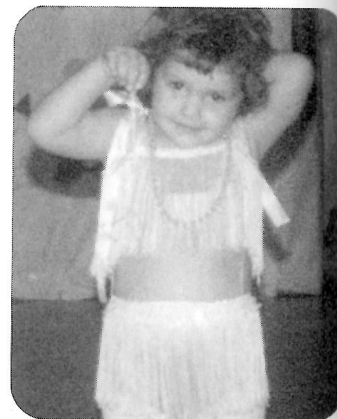

We Love You
Mama, Daddy, & Wayne

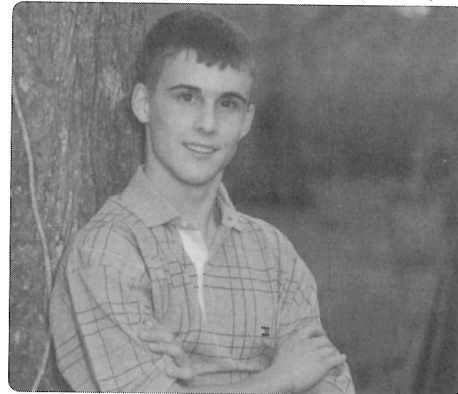

LISA,
Eighteen years ago you came into our lives. Waiting for your birth was what kept us from falling apart. We waited for you-your brother, sister, grandparents and I with such love and expectation, and you've never let us down. You were the light of your grandpa's eyes, and if he were here today, he'd say "Tootsie, I'm so proud of you." May you begin each day with God in your heart, pride in yourself and the love that we all give to you. We are so proud of you! Remember to be true to yourself and you'll go far in all that you choose to do.

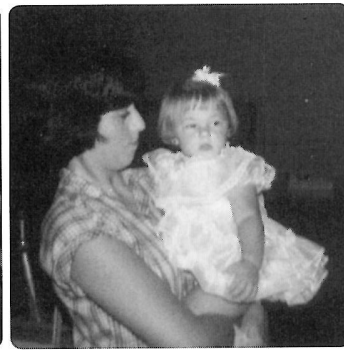

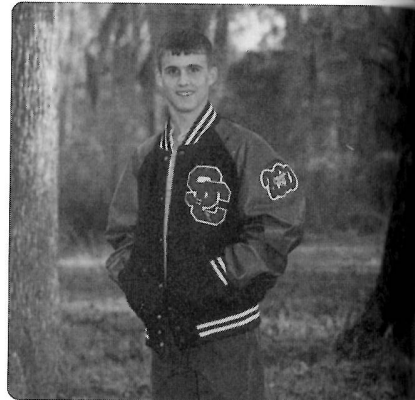

Love, Mom, Dad, MawMaw, Nanny, Lauri, Troy, Karen, Kelley, and your Grandpa looking down on you from above.

Cassie Little

When the Little family got baby number four, we just didn't know what was in store.

'Cause Blondie would turn the family about
Two boys, now two girls, could they ever shout!

Cassie was not sassy, not rude, and not mean, she'd flash those dimples, and she was the queen.

Never left behind, she rode horseback with Papa and Dad, through the marsh, even when the mud was bad.

Following the herd, after all those cattle,
So little, she climbed the fence to get in the saddle.

The four wheeler ran through the pasture and on,
even the tunnelhull, Little Pecan, lots of fun.

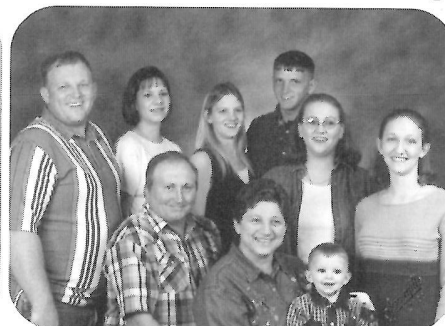

But now Cassie's grown, no longer the baby,
in the green Corolla, she rides the highway.

When she graduates, we'll clap and cheer,
and Cassie Big says, "I'm outa here!"

Grand Chenier might get left behind, for bigger cities where club lights shine.

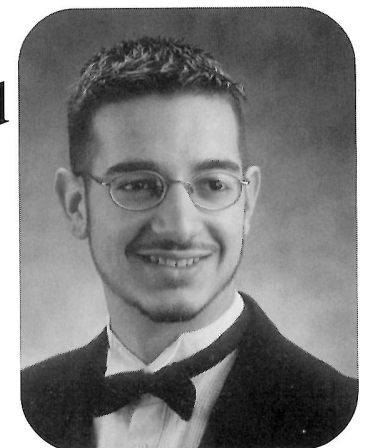

But she can still flash those dimples and pretty blue eyes,
Cassie Little's our girl, with a laugh and a smile.

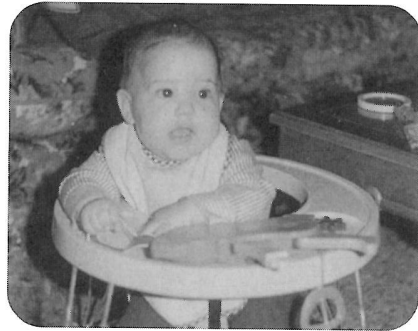

ove: Mom, Dad, Crystal, Cody, Mindy, Caleb, Chad, Melanie, Ty, and Brant

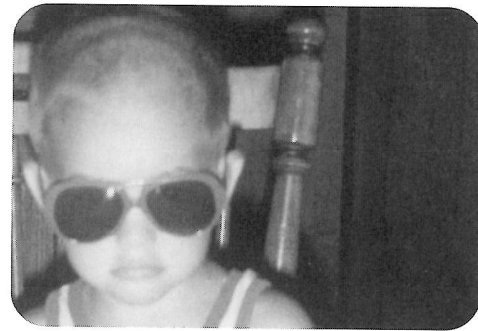

Challenged by the pressures of today's world, you have once again proven yourself with this, your graduation. You have done well. We do not mind sounding old fashioned when we say: This is not the end, but the beginning: reach for the stars. We love you and are very proud of you. Keep a happy heart and a giving soul with God as your Guide.

Robert,
We've Watched You Grow, Since You Were A Child.
Oh, How Much Joy You Have Brought Us.
That's What Fills Our Hearts With Pride.

Over The Years That We Have Watched You Grow.
You Have Accomplished All Your Goals.

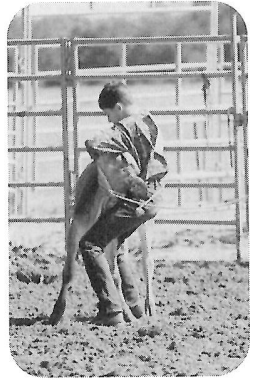

We Could Not Believe How Determined You Were To Catch
Your First Fish, Shoot Your First Duck, Win Your First Match,
Or Rope Your First Calf, And Finally Throw Your First Steer.

17 Years Have Passed, Where Have They Gone?
We Remember You As A Baby And Look At You Now
GOD! How Much Have You Grown.

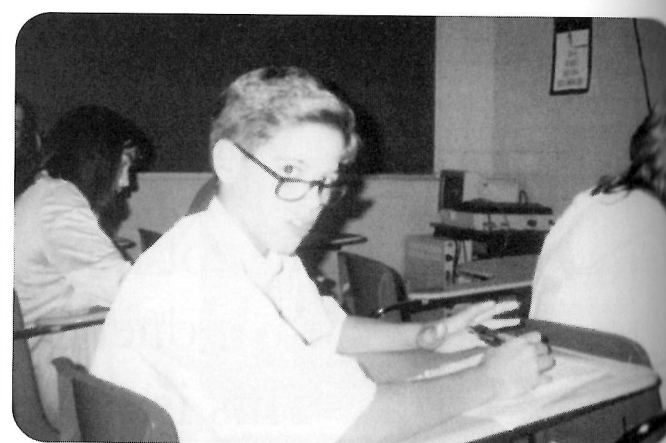

We will Always Remember The Good Times That We Have Shared. For These Are Called Memories, And Memories Are Meant To Last.

As You Were Growing Up You Had A Will That Brings You To Now, And Will Carry You On.

"I Think Continually of Those Who Were Truly Great"

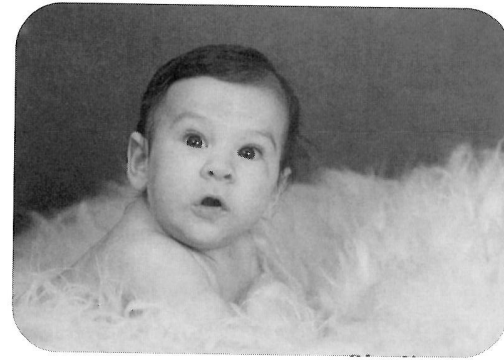

I think continually of those who were truly great.
Who from the womb, remember the soul's history
Through corridors of light where the hours are suns,
Endless and singing. Whose lovely ambition
Was that their lips, still touched with fire,
Should tell of the spirit clothed from head to foot in song.
And who hoarded from the spring branches
The desires falling across their bodies like blossoms.

What is precious is never to forget
The delight of the blood drawn from ageless springs
Breaking through rocks in worlds before our earth;
Never to deny its pleasure in the simple morning light
Nor its grave evening demand for love;
Never to allow gradually the traffic to smother
With noise and fog the flowering of the spirit.

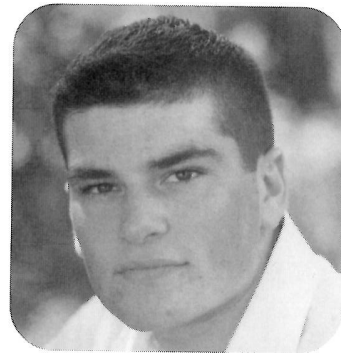

Near the snow, near the sun, in the highest field
See how those names are feted by the wavering grass,
And by the streamers of white cloud,
And whispers of wind in the listening sky;
The names of those who in their lives fought for life,
Who wore at their hearts the fire's centre.
Born of the sun they traveled a short while towards the sun.
And left the vivid air signed with their honor.

Sir Stephen Spender

Dear David Lee, in your life may you be able to follow your desires without forgetting from where you've come, to feel the fire in your heart and let NOTHING smother your spirit. May you, too, become truly great. Our love and devotion are with you always. Nanny & Papaw, Moma & Al, Alexa, Andre, Aunt Cindy & Uncle Neal, Chloe, Clelie

MISTY

Sometimes I would lie awake in my bed,
memories dancing around in my head,
Sweet dreams of Misty I would awake with a smile,
She was dancing and playing all of the while,
I'm thinking, my Lord, Oh! could it be true?
Do you think she's dreaming little dreams of me too?
Whether dreaming asleep or wide awake,
Beautiful dreams of Misty were all I could make,
How much would she grow, or what would she be?
Would she look like her daddy or just like me.
Well, she's a little like her daddy and she's a little like me
But it really doesn't matter, she has her own personality
So here's a little poem to tell her how I feel
It comes from my heart and genuily real
You are everything that I dreamed you would turn out to be
I'm so proud that you dream a little dream with me!

We're are so proud of you!

As beautiful as the most awesome of sunsets,
 As vast as a clear, cloudless sky,
 As bright as the first twinkling star of the evening,
 As rare as a jeweled butterfly...
 As wondrous as blossoms unfolding their splendor,
 As wise as the tallest of trees,
 As grand as the mountains that reach to the heavens,
 As free as a lighthearted breeze ----
 You're the best of God's gifts ----
 His most precious creation -----
 A one-of-a-kind, perfect you!
 And your GRADUATION is a time to give thanks and remember
 That you are a miracle, too!
 May this be a day you'll never forget,
 May the years be the best by far,
 May you trust in GOD'S wisdom, believe in yourself and the image of HIM that you are.
 Today and always, You are very special
 And eternally loved.

SHAUN

The time has come for you to step out into the world. Believe that you're a person who has something good to give. We have watched you grow and achieve for 18 years. We have been through lots of agreements and disagreements. Always trust in God for guidance. When you look ahead to future changes, or think about how the past used to be, don't forget to look beside you because that's where you'll find me.

Love you Forever,
 Mom, Daddy Ruben, & Bryan

I love to see you smile
And I love knowing that I caused that smile
I love to see you happy
And I love knowing that I caused that happiness

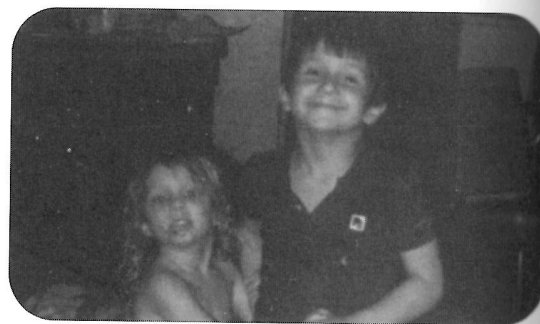

I love to look into your beautiful eyes
And I love the way I fall into them
I love it when you hold my hand
And I love having the courage to grab and hold yours

I love to tease and torment you
And I love it when you tease and torment me
I love it when you touch me
And I love to touch you

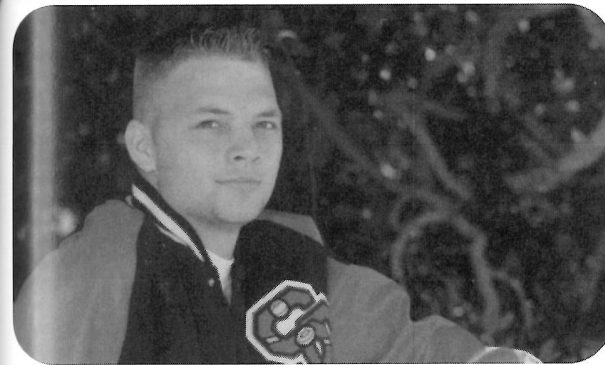

I love rediscovering how beautiful you are each time I see you
And I love realizing how attractive you make me feel
I love wanting so badly to kiss you
And I love the way you want to take things slow

I love the fact that you still want to be my friend
And I love that I want to be yours
I love so many things about you

Remember the process to achieve the success of today,
It took Mom to keep your heart always looking upward, and was there and loved you through it all in every way.
Remember the moments of counseling and fatherly advice, from Dad who taught you to find the extra strength to go on and when to sacrifice.
Remember the team support and the one that stuck by you,
from your Little Brother that shared an encouraging word.
The one who established the wings on which you flew.
You have achieved all that is possible and have attempted the impossible.
You have strived for and accomplished an important goal in your life of which we are very proud.

Best Wishes From
Mom, Dad, and Barrett

YOU'RE A WONDERFUL SON-
 And that's why your graduation day means so very much-because it is a day to look back and celebrate all your past accomplishments, a day to look back and anticipate all your future successes... But whatever path you choose, whatever future you make for yourself from this day on, know that you are already a success in the eyes of your family. For it has been a great joy to have a son like you to love-to watch you grow and mature into a responsible young man-and all that we have shared through the years has only reinforced what a truly special person you are-and how truly deserving you are of life's best.

CONGRATULATIONS!

It is with mixed feelings that we proudly watch you complete your Kindergarten to 12th grade education and step forward into adult life. You've become an independent young lady and you make us proud beyond words. Courtnie, as you soar, may God guide your wings, for only through Him will you accomplish all things. When facing a difficult task, remember to act as if you cannot fail. It's not enough to have a dream; you must be willing to pursue it. Courage doesn't always roar, sometimes it's the small, quiet voice at the end of the day that says "I'll try again tomorrow." Our prayer for you as you begin to fly, is that you reach great success and happiness.

With Love,
Dad, Mom, Mika & Chad

Graduations are like Stepping Through

Graduations are like stepping through
A veil into another, larger room.
Behind, where we can never go again.
Are memories like a shipwreck full of gold.

Strange, the harmonies of pride and sadness,
The dawn and sunset of the new and old,
The bittersweet good-byes while looking forward
To the things unseen beyond the ridge of time.

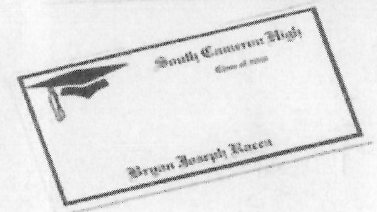

Numb with too much life we stagger through them,
Time passing in the ordinary way.
Relatives and friends all swarm around us,
Buzzing round the silence of the real.

And once the ceremonies and the parties
Are over, and the sweet days come and go,
All we've lost comes back to us as music
Of love departed, never to return.

We Love You
Dad & Mom

Graduation's on a Mountaintop

Graduation's on a mountaintop.
Rarely does one get a better view.
All that is in front of one is new.
Dreams fade into haze rather than stop.
Underneath are queasiness and fear
As familiar landscapes fall away.
The rice of moving on is just that gray.
Intensity that grips as new eyes near.
On you may all life's burdens sit with grace.
Now may you love, and that sweet joy embrace.
Love Ill sis,

OUR SON
Parents seldom realize until their son is grown

The many ways
he's touched their hearts
Or how the time has flown...

Then suddenly the boy is gone and who's this in his place?

A young man
filled with more than dreams,
but hope and promise, too

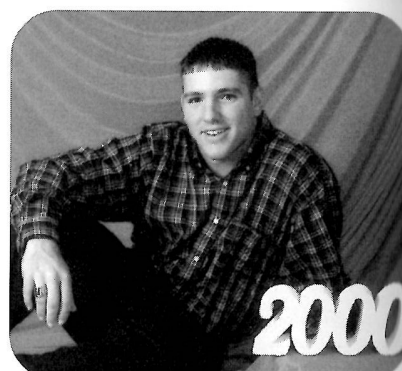

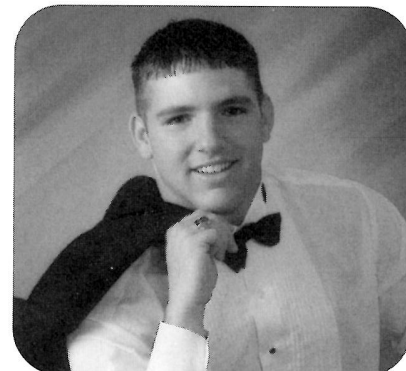

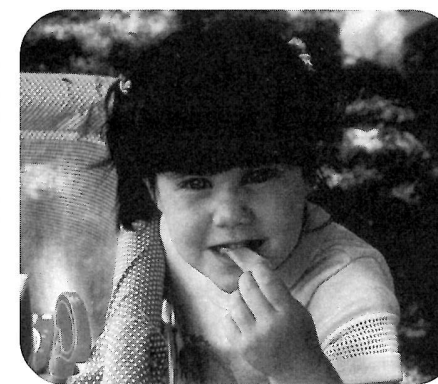

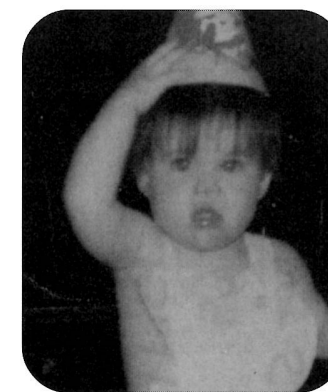

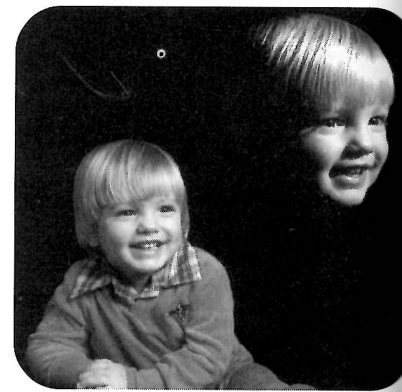

Facing life on his own terms,
With visions to pursue...

And though we always trusted you'd be second-best to none, we never knew how proud we'd be to say

"There goes our son."

Steven!

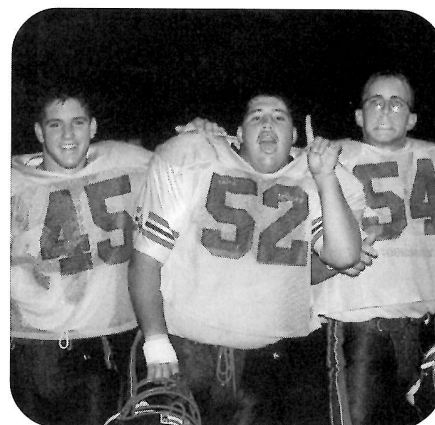

We Love You
Mom and Rex

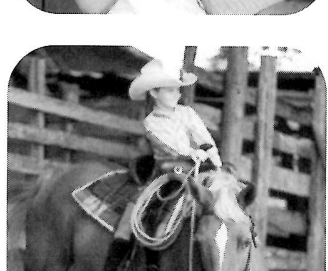

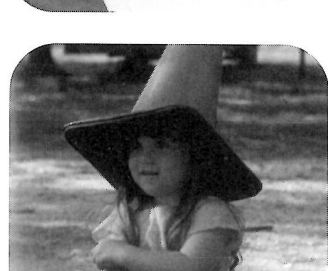

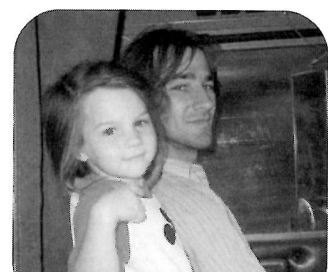

Shauna,

We're proud of you today because of all you've accomplished. We're excited for you because you have the power to make your dreams come true... And, we'll be here for you always because we believe in you.

Love, Mom, Daddy, and Sara

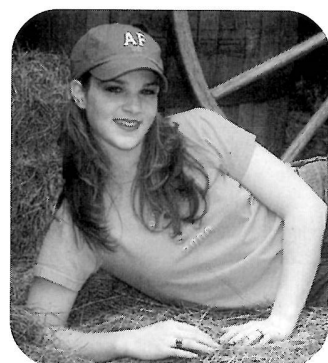

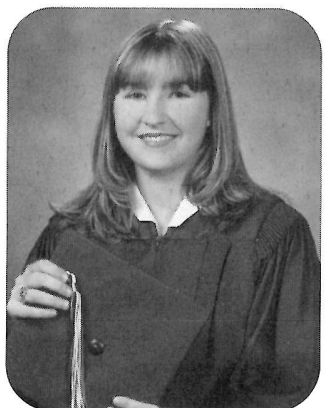

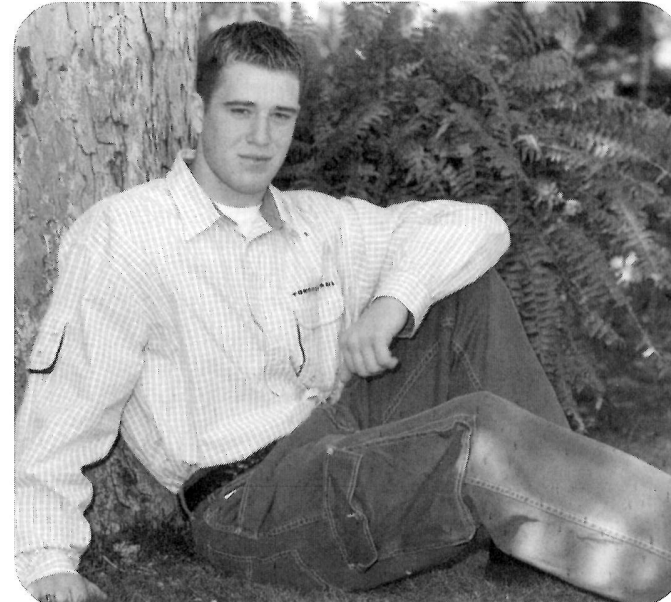

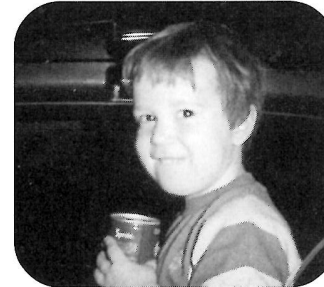

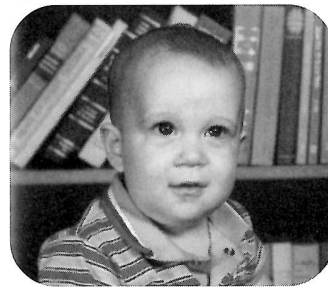

Sabrina,
 The word "accomplish" means: "To manage to succeed" or "An acquired excellence of skill." Together, with God giving the wisdom and strength, and you conquering the physical and mental part, to prove this statement true. But, it doesn't stop here...allowing God to take you through your future one day at a time, you can accomplish all your expectations. We Love You, Mom, Dad, & Joe

Daughter, You're a Winner...
 A winner sweats
 when no is looking,
 finds strength and courage
 when all seems lost.
 Pain is never in her mind,
 but always in her body.
 Her strongest muscle, her heart, knows no rest, for it is continually striving towards its goal.
 A winner has pride in her soul
 and humility in her step.
 A winner always comes back,
 even when the score says
 differently,
 just to prove that she's a winner.
 And you will always be a winner.

THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES
 Congratulations, SARAH MYLEAH
 We are proud of you!
 Keep on being your own unique self
 You are a free spirit.
 Keep God in your life, love in your heart, that smile on your face, dance in your soul, & that twinkle in your toes!
 Follow your dreams & reach for the stars.
 Remember --you are forever loved
 Mom & Dad

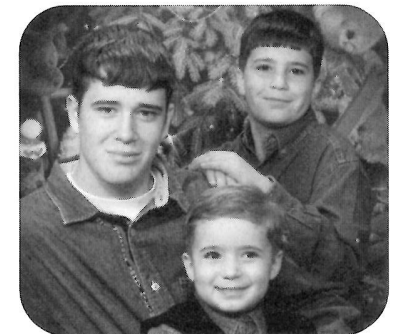

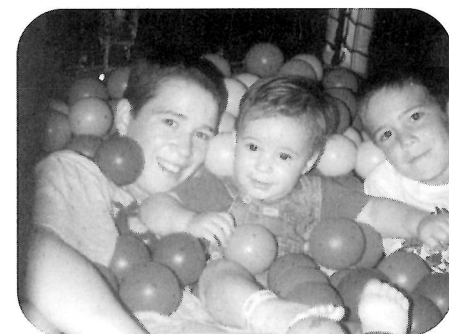

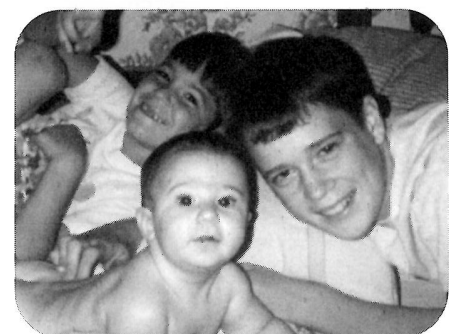

When you were a child you were usually here by my side filled with wonder and curiosity. Now a days, you're mostly on your own planning, doing, dreaming, and reaching for the stars and that's as it should be. But I want you to know that no matter how far from home your dreams may lead you - in every way that matters, you're still by my side - right here in my heart - where I'll always treasure you as my little girl and the beautiful daughter I love.

Love,
Mama

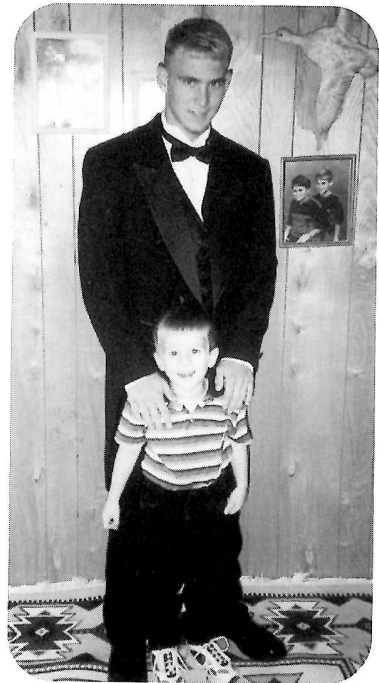

Bill Roy and Danny Girl

Keith,

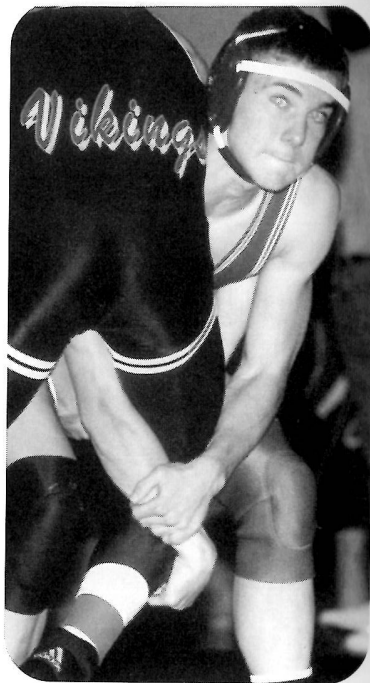

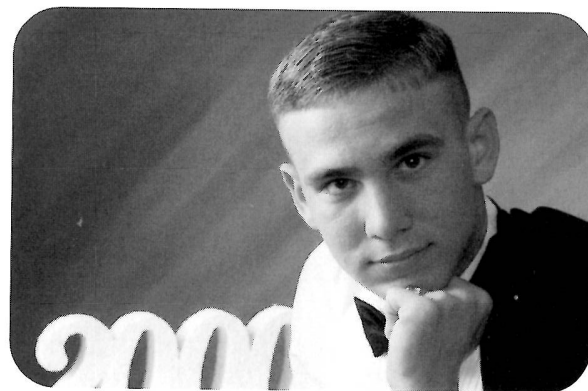

We are all proud of you in all you have accomplished. Good luck in the future and we will love and support you. Always keep God in your heart.

"As Good As It Will Get"
 Dear Fellow Classmates,
 Class of 2000, this is the end of the great years. We made the biggest steps of our lives, we graduated. For some you really don't want to leave high school and I understand why. This was the greatest years we ever had together. Some people will climb higher than others in life, but hopefully we don't look down on them, but look them eye to eye. We will all grow closer to each other in these next few months. Hopefully we will never grow apart, but it just might happen though. We will get married, have some kids, and just move away. Some of us will in Cameron, others will move to other parts of the state and others will go and never come back. We may be heartbroken by their decisions, but soon we will realize that it was their choice. We all have different passions in our hearts. Some of us are going to be satisfied with just graduating high school and the others will fulfill their lifetime dreams to be lawyers, machinists, mechanics, doctors, and whatever else they dreamed. Now it's we start making our own decisions. Our parents have guided us for as long as they could. Now, it's time to take that great leap out of the nest and spread our wings and fly. Some of us may hit the ground but we are a strong hearted class and we will not give up until the final whistle has blown. And to tell you the truth I doubt it very seriously that any of us hit the ground because we all have big backbones. We will always remember all the parties, first loves, all the friends we made, sitting around chatting in class, catching some sun on Skip Day, winning games together, and most importantly being the "Class of 2000" together. What we finally did at the most is that we survived 13 years of hard work and received that diploma. And remember "This Is As Good As It Will Ever Get."

Thank You and Congratulations,
 Bryant Nunez

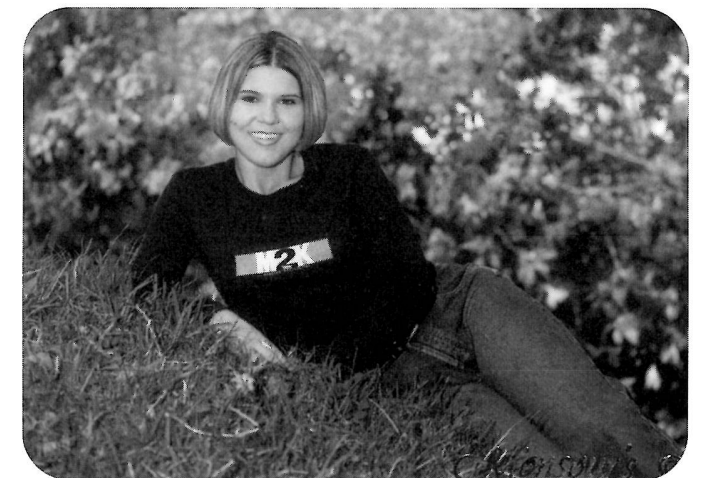

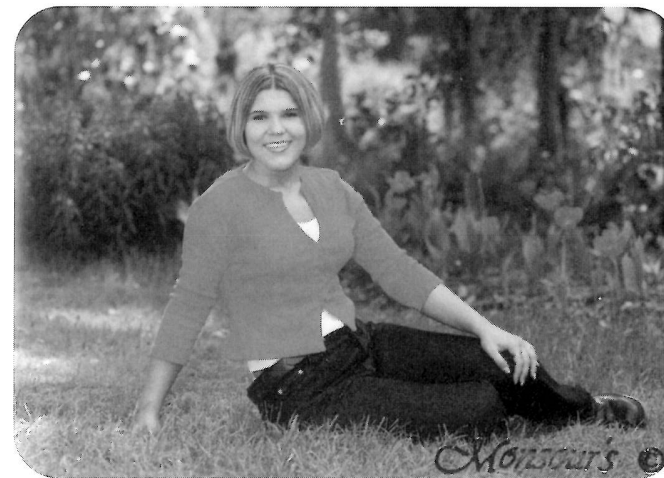

Almost eighteen years ago we held our second son in our arms. We have watched you in football and wrestling from elementary to part of high school. We have watched you grow from a very active child into a sort of slowed down young man. We are proud of you. Just remember that God will be with through your journey in life, if you let him.

CONGRATULATIONS CLASS OF 2000!

*On the ground he lay, peaceful, soundly
Sleeping he looks, Sleeping heavenly
Friends passing by wonder
"Who is that poor soul?"
But never would they know the desparity in its whole.*

*The minutes went on as if eons had passed and for each second drawn, a flood of tears would last
As daybreak came, heart break soared
The world seemed empty and so unadorned.*

*Rivers of tears filled the halls
Cries of sadness echoed the walls
Feeling the grief and filled with sorrow
No long could the children hope for tomorrow
While some repressed their fears, others did vice-verse
But you could see the expression within their eyes,
No matter how diverse*

*It hid behind the eyes, but screamed from the heart
The souls begged to keep together, not torn apart
Even now as they swim through the river of despair
They show respect with intensity and care.*

*In the casket he lay, peaceful, soundly
Sleeping he looks, sleeping heavenly
Loved ones around ask why he couldn't be reprieved.
But they know the reason, it was his time to leave.
An ocean of tears flown over the pews,
as they paid their respects walking up by the pews.*

In the ground he lay, peaceful, soundly sleeping now he is, sleeping in heaven..
