Welcome to The

TARPON ZONE

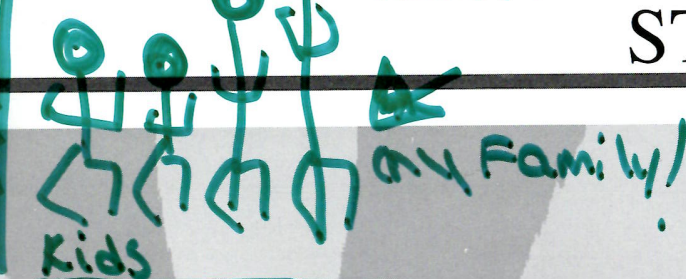

4 Opening

Jessica!!

Girl we have had some very awesome fun times!! Almost every time I go 2 get drunk, I can't ever without you! I can't never remember a time when we were not friends, Even though we were enemies at one time! I know sometimes we get on each others nerves, but what r friends for, I know we ~~are~~ only have 1yr OF HIS LEFT, SO we better make the Best of our time 2-gether!! We better have a party at ur house I'm looking forward to going to college + leavin garrett at home, while we go man hunting! I can't wait till we get married + have babies + I can't wait to get old + party like my parents!! anyway, I better let you go cause I don't know! I wish you luck in life!! Stay sweet!

2000-01 Class Elections

Elections to select class officers and Student Council representatives were held September 5-8. Candidates decorated the halls by hanging posters and campaigned by handing out flyers and stickers. Each candidate was required to give a two minute speech to be placed on the ballot. Following the speeches each class voted.

The halls were covered with posters that students made for their campaigns.

Justin S. says, "I'm the man with the plan."

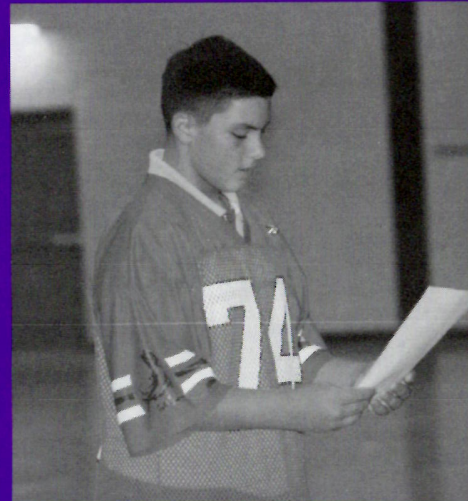

Kim D. says, "Vote for me and I'll get the job done."

Edmon H. says, "Hey where did my speech go?"

Aerial R. concentrates on her speech.

Matt M. asks his 8th grade class to vote for him.

2000-01 Presidential Debate ^{Campaign}

South Cameron High held a mock presidential debate October 27 to inform the student body of the candidates running and the issues being discussed in the election. The debate was a joint effort of several classes. The mock debate was very informative.

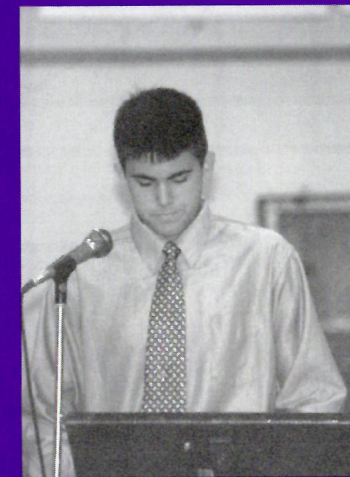

These students participated in the mock presidential debate.

These Juniors are cheering for their favorite candidate at the debate.

Ryan B. speaks on behalf of the candidate, George Bush.

Devin H. and Kristen R. are speaking on behalf of the Gay Campaign.

Homecoming Week

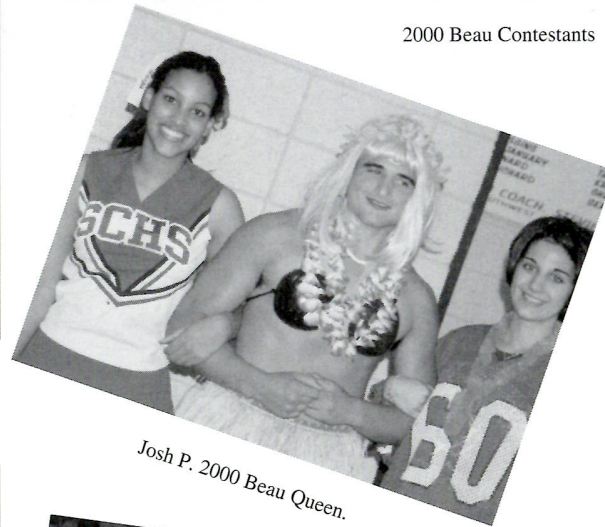

Homecoming Week was October 16-20. The dress days were Opposite Day, Pajamas, Camouflage, Country and Western, and Red, White and Blue Day. Other activities held were a community bon fire and parade, karaoke contest, class section decorating contest, and a special pep rally. The annual Beau pageant was held on Friday during the pep rally.

RENAISSANCE

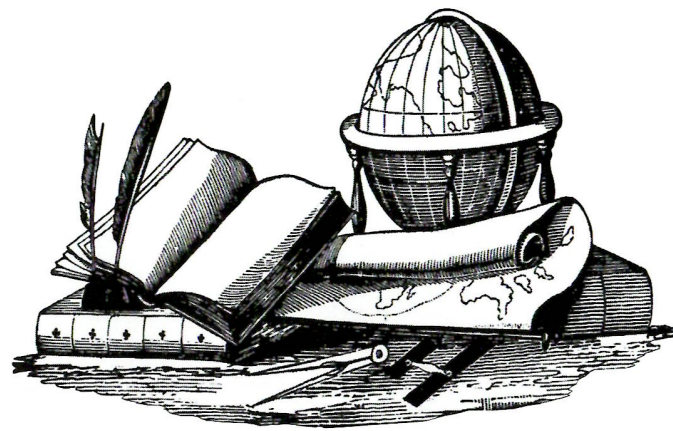

The Renaissance Program aims to promote student achievement through various forms of recognition. The forms of recognition include special parking places and doughnut parties. The program consist of a group of dedicated teachers and staff members. This group is in charge of organizing the various activities.

These guys are enjoying the benefits of good grades, free doughnuts.

Melissa L., Kayla K., and Mandi B. are excited about being Tarpons of the Week.

Mrs. Savoie hands Nicole H. and Parry L. their doughnuts.

Raphael H. and Alexis S. carefully select their doughnut.

Melissa LaLande

Each year South Cameron High School selects one eighth grade and one twelfth grade student as Students of the Year. This year the honorees were Matt Miller and Melissa LaLande. These students were selected by a committee of faculty members after writing a biographical essay and participating in an interview. The students then participated in the parish level contest. Matt Miller won at this level.

Jessica,
 Hey what kickin chick. Well let me see where u'd. Jessica me and you have never did nothing before except for this weekend coming up. We're going hunting w/ the Boys Camp. Well I'm hoping that this weekend we have fun at Curt's if I don't have to work. Well I'm hoping that the weekend goes smoothly and my Mom lets me do some stuff. Well good luck in the future and be sure to go to confession too. Well Jessica
 I guess I will quit writing now. OK. Talk to you later

Love,

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council was very involved this year. The club was able to open a Tarpon Store. The club had several successful fundraising activities. The club once again sold Boo Bags at Halloween. The club also collected money for the Lukemia Society and placed in the top ten in the state for money raised. The school office was given a gift certificate by the Leukemia Society for the club success. The club ended the year with a trip to Moody Gardens in Galveston, Texas. The club was under the leadership of Mrs. Vaughan and Ms. Nunez.

Jennifer,
 Writing this brings tears to my eyes, because just yesterday it seems like you were born. Now look at you, a beautiful woman about to face life head on, to accomplish your goals in whatever God has in store for you. I know you have been through a lot of heartache in the past years, but with God's help you have learned how to deal with your problems. We are just so very proud of you Jenny, you are so very special to us. God has blessed you with many talents, so continue to use them in whatever you do in your life. Just remember Jennifer to keep God first in everything you do and the rest will fall into place. And always know that we will be there for you, in whatever you choose to do.

When I look at you it's clear to me that I can see the fingerprints of God
 And I know it's true
 You're a masterpiece
 That all creation quietly applauds
 And you're covered with the fingerprints of God
 Never has there been and never again
 Will there be another you
 Fashioned by God's hands
 And perfectly planned
 To be just who you are
 And what He's been creating
 Since the first beat of your heart
 Is a living breathing priceless work of art.

Just look at you
 You're a wonder in the making
 Oh, and God's not through, no
 In fact, He's just getting started.

 Cherie, Bennie, and Brandon

The Challenge

Do you think that your tomorrow
 Will be different than today?
 Do you think the things you hoped for
 Will come true in any way?

By the thoughts you put in action,
 By the dreams you strive to reach—
 You can shape or form the future
 By some hard-sought fact they teach.

Choose the good you want to happen—
 It surrounds you in the "now".
 You can make or change the present...
 Let God's wisdom show you how!

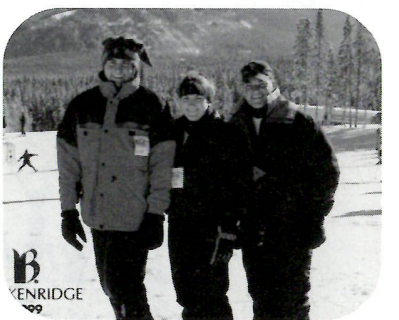

Take the path that seems to open:
 For you're walking it today!
 You can even change tomorrow
 If you let God show the way!

Roxie Lusk Smith

We hope you choose your paths wisely, and always with God's help.

BRANDI,

As you graduate high school and look forward to college, this is a special time. A time for sad good-byes, glad hopes, and happy memories-your high school graduation is surely filled with all of these...but most of all, this is a time for pride in all you've done-for looking back on things you've learned and honors you have won...then look ahead with confidence, for you have paved the way to more success and happiness throughout your college day. Best of luck and we are very proud of you.

Love,

Blake,

God Blessed you with unique talents and abilities and you have used those gifts well! You've taken nothing for granted; rather, you have worked hard to prepare for a challenging future. Just as important as the lessons that you've learned in the classroom are the ways that you've grown as a person; the friendships you have formed and the deeper understanding you have acquired of yourself and others. As you celebrate this milestone in your life and look towards a new horizon, never forget what has brought you this far. Remember the love of your family and friends. Remember your own sacrifice and hard work. And remember that God has a special plan for your life. You have so much to be thankful for and so much to look forward to. May your graduation mark the beginning of many new joys and accomplishments... And a continuation of all the good things that you have already achieved.

With Faith in God, You Can Achieve Everything You Dream Of On Your Graduation Day! Blake, We Hope That All Your Dreams Become a Reality, And You've Made Us Proud In So Many Ways. Always Remember, We Love You So Very Much.

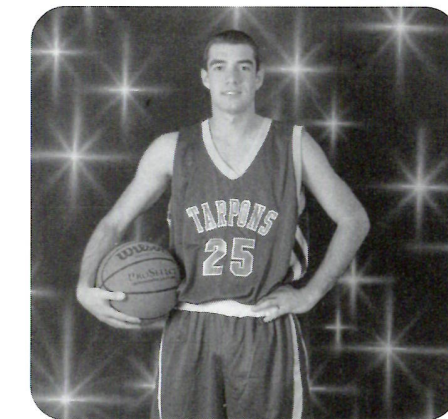

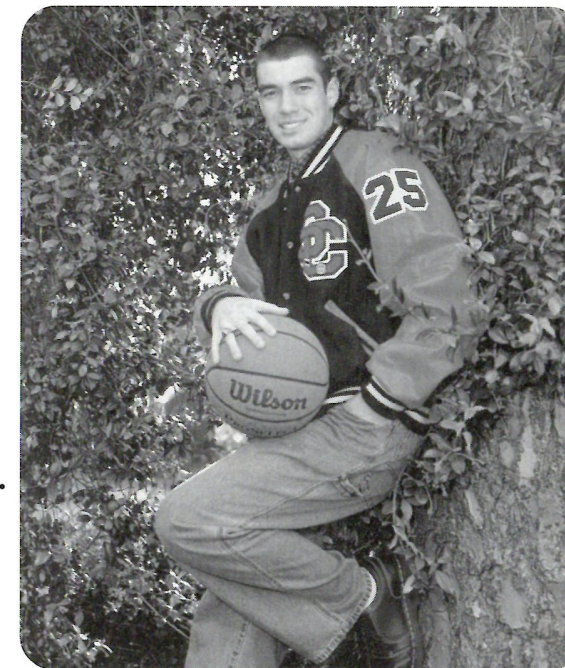

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Jacob

DREAMS.

Congratulations, Blake on your graduation day. It seems like only yesterday you were a baby sitting on my lap-Now you're 18 years old still sitting on my lap and loved as much now as you were then. I know you've been waiting all these years to graduate and make all of your dreams come true. God knows what's in your heart and knows what step you want to take next. So whatever your choice is he will be right there with you. Even though we will be far apart in the future we will only be a phone call away. We wish you all the best of luck and success in every thing you do...

We Love You!

*Graduation is a time
For feeling very proud,
For thinking lots of lovely thoughts
And saying them out loud.*

*It's a time for feeling love
About to overflow,
And just before it leaps its banks,
To let the loved one know.*

*So we are very proud of you
For being who you are,
For making something of yourself,
For making it this far.*

*We're proud because we're a part
Of everything you do.
This time to say how much
Love we have for you.*

*Congratulaitons! Love Always,
Mam, Dad, Ashley,
Granny, and Grandpa*

You began this journey 13 years ago
 Two shy, timid little girls,
 Known mainly as "The Twins"
 You've both come a long way
 Developed into individuals-
 Characters all your own
 Known as Heather and Allison
 You've given us days of delight
 Days of frustration...and many
 Days of Barbie Dolls along the way
 Your Dad and I feel blessed to have been chosen to guide you both along the way.
 We are proud of you both,

Almost 18 years ago we held our first child in our arms. As we've watched you grow from Kindergarten through 12th grade, we proudly call you SON.

As you venture into your future, allow God to help you choose your paths. When you dream, pursue it. When you achieve, stand proud.

Remember, God will guide you through this journey we call life; if you allow Him,

We are so proud of you!

Sometimes we take life for granted just as we take words for granted. I really never told you thank you for all that you have done for me and your daddy while I was in the hospital and how much we love you and still today you help me a lot. I know sometimes we got a little stern with you. We are so proud of you for achieving your goals that we did not want you to mess up in life. Tiffany, we love you very much and thank you. I could have not done it without you. Remember to keep God in our life because he makes it happen.

We love you! Mom, Dad, Cory, Adam, Jordan, Madison, and Brianna

*When this life started in '82
Your cheeks were fat and your eyes were blue
We began a love story and started to pray and believed God would mold you into who you are today
Faithful as always, to His end
an excellent spirit became your friend
As we watched you grow into a young lady your standards strong and a past unshady
Our hearts so proud of you but also heavy to let you fly so straight, so steady
With a guiding hand for 4 more years
We will always love you, (please no tears)
So go humbly out into a challenging world stay loving and honest, our precious girl
Knowing in your heart
we are home praying for you
Your Mom, Dad, and Bubbie too.*

Congratulations Jeremy and Penni!

We can't believe you are graduating. It seems like only yesterday you were making your first steps, then starting school. You both have been the light of our lives. You have made us very proud. Good luck in the future. We know you will accomplish great things. Always remember to put God first in your lives.

We love you,

Daddy, Mama, Chuck, Nannie, Paw Paw, Maw Maw and Casie too.

Congratulations on all that you have accomplished. You have made us so proud. Remember no matter what path you choose in life someone from above is watching over you. He will be there to guide you in making the right decisions for your future.

Love,

Mom, Dad, Chad, and "Jake"

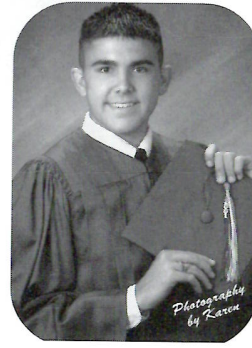

Blake, Cody, and Nickie

If you find a path with no obstacles, it probably doesn't lead anywhere. May the Lord help you to see obstacles as stepping stones on the path to a greater dependence on Him.

You are so special we all know this to be true, a daughter, a sister, someone to look up to. From Kindergarten through twelfth, how did you get through it? It really does not matter, we all knew you could do it. Through Proms and Promises and what tomorrow holds believe in yourself as you've been told. Your accomplishments are unlimited to what tomorrow brings. Your graduation opens the door to many new things. So as you wander out into a world so brand new-Remember your Mom, your Dad, and your Sister loves you!

Michael,

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. But in all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Life is not easy and it's not always fair. Things don't always turn out the way we plan and we find ourselves asking "Why Me?" But always know that all things work together for good for those who love the Lord. Seek His will and follow His calling and you'll be blessed in all that you do. Delight thyself also in the Lord; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart. We are so proud of you and we're behind you in whatever you choose to do. We are so proud of all the joy and laughter that you have brought to our lives. You've grown from a shy little boy to a humorous, yet confident, adjusted young man. Always be the best you can be.

We Love You!

Mam, Dad, Meghann, Marcus
PawPaw Boyd and Grandma Yvonne

God has granted you the serenity to accept the things you cannot change,
The courage to change the things you can,
And the wisdom to know the difference.
